

Tunisia CPD Summary Results Matrix

UNICEF MTSP Focus area	Key results in this focus Areas	Key progress indicators	Means of verification	Majors Partners, Partnership Frameworks & Cooperation Programs	The expected key results in this Focus Area will contribute to :
1.Young child survival and development	1.1 In target governorates, enhanced access and quality of care in 90% of maternal and child health facilities.	1.1.1. Neonatal, perinatal and maternal mortality rates. 1.1.2. Utilisation rate of MCH services. 1.1.3. Clients satisfaction rate in MCH services.	MoH statistics and reports National and local surveys, assessments and studies	MoH NGOs	UNDAF Outcome 1 Improved access to good quality services and vulnerabilities reduced. WFFC Goal: Promoting healthy lives MDG 4, 5
2. Basic education and gender equality	2.1. In the least performing regions, at least 70% of students acquire learning achievements in line with national standards.	2.1.1. % of children reaching level of minimum mastery of basic competencies in the various grades of primary and intermediate cycles 2.1.2. pass rates in the various grades 2.1.3. % of in-service training programmes covered by a certification system.	MoE statistics Learning achievement studies	Ministry of Education at central and regional levels	UNDAF Outcome 1: Improved access to good quality services and vulnerabilities Reduced. education WFFC Goal : Providing quality education MDG 2
	2.2. For out of school children aged 6 to 16: a) the percentage is reduced from 9.7% in 2005 to 7% in 2011, with emphasis on the least performing regions b) 70% of them are adequately covered by alternative training programmes and other schemes and services.	2.2.1. Global drop out rate 2.2.2 % of at risk children covered by school drop out prevention programmes 2.2.3. % of out of school children enrolled in alternative programmes 2.2.4 timeliness in the elaboration of the national strategy for out of school children	MoE statistics Data from other ministries and institutions	Ministry of Education (central & regional) Ministry of Social Affairs, Ministry of Youth, Ministry of Culture, National EFA Forum, NGOs.
	2.3. A range of operational approaches tested promoting children and parents' participation in school life and management and a national model is ready for adoption.	2.3.1. Adequacy of new initiatives launched in pilot schools promoting student participation 2.3.2. % of students participating to school life and taking initiatives 2.3.3. % of schools with active involvement of teachers and parents in school management	Monitoring reports on school projects Reports of regional task forces National Steering Group reports	MoE (central & regional) Centre for Pedagogic Innovation & Educational Research
	2.4. Vulnerable children (disabilities or geographic), benefit from positive discrimination measures and their school results improve by 20%.	2.4.1. % of children with disabilities enrolled in inclusive schools 2.4.2. Pass rate of children with disabilities in schools 2.4.3. Pass rate of vulnerable children in the 4 deprived regions.	Statistics from MoE Statistics from the Ministry of Social Affairs	MoE, Ministry of Public Health, Ministry of Social Affairs

3. Children and HIV/SIDA	3.1. At least 5 major adolescents and young people centres are set up to promote healthy life style including information, skills and services for HIV/AIDS prevention, care and support.	3.1.1. Number of adolescents & young people counselled and tested for HIV 3.1.2. % of young people at the 5 major centres who declare adopting healthy lifestyles. 3.1.3. Number of services established and fully functioning	Surveys, assessments and studies Annual reports from the Centres. MoH annual reports.	MoH, Civil society organizations, Ministries of Culture, Education, Social Affairs, Ministry of Youth.	UNDAF Outcome 1: Improved access to good quality services and vulnerabilities reduced. UNDAF Outcome 2 Empowerment of adolescents and youth for an active participation in society, and access to good quality services WFFC Goal : Combating HIV-AIDS MDG: 4, 5, 6
	3.2. Prevention services and quality of care, treatment and psychosocial support provided to HIV infected women and children are improved.	3.2.1. % of pregnant women who receive counselling on PMTCT 3.2.2. % of registered HIV infected women who receive a complete course of ARV prophylaxis to reduce MTCT. 3.2.3. % of registered HIV infected women and infants who have access to psychosocial support services	MoH statistics and reports NGOs' activity reports Surveys, assessments and studies HIV/AIDS database	MoH Civil society organizations
4. Child Protection	4.1. Child protection networks are established in 10 governorates to support children in conflict with the law and at risk children referred to the regional child protection officers /other social structures, with a priority to their reintegration into the family.	4.1.1. Percentage of referred children benefiting from protection services 4.1.2. Recurrence rate of at risk children 4.1.3. Percentage of children in conflict w/the law who benefit from reintegration projects.	Quarterly reports from child protection officials Child protection database	MASSTE, MAFFEPA MJDH, MIDL, NGOs	UNDAF Outcome 1 : Improved access to good quality services and vulnerabilities reduced. UNDAF Outcome 2: Empowerment of adolescents and youth for an active participation in society, and access to good quality services Millennium declaration
	4.2. A system of data collection and information monitoring is operational with relevant indicators addressing child protection issues.	4.2.1. Percentage of protection indicators for which data is available 4.2.2. Progress in establishing a database and in its use.	Quarterly reports of the Observatory of child rights Annual Childhood reports	MAFFEPA (Observatory of child rights), MASSTE, MJDH, MIDL
	4.3 Policies and legislation related to children's right to protection are implemented/ enforced.	4.3.1 Progress achieved in full functioning of support systems (existing and new).	Programme reviews	MAFFEPA MASSTE National Institute of child protection, MJDH
5. Policy, advocacy, partnership and participation	5.1. Partnerships for policy analysis and dialogue are strengthened, supported by an integrated child rights monitoring system.	5.1.1. Involvement of the Observatories (Child Rights; Youth, Education) in policy dialogue for children 5.1.2. Progress achieved in establishing and using child rights monitoring system, including at decentralized levels.	Survey of the Observatories Government records	National partners; National Observatories; UN agencies	UNDAF Outcome 1: Improved access to good quality services and vulnerabilities reduced. UNDAF Outcome 2: Empowerment of adolescents and youth for an active participation in society, and access to good quality services
	5.2. Improved availability of disaggregated data at district level to support targeting and monitoring of MDGs and NPA	5.2.1. MDGs/NPA indicators, as per DevInfo, for which disaggregated data is available as per planned timeframe.	Various surveys DevInfo	National Observatories, INS, CNS, UN Agencies

5.3. Successful experiences in various programs are documented to support wider implementation.	5.3.1. Number of targeted projects that are well documented 5.3.2. Number documented projects that are scaled up.	Government records Review reports	Main programme implementing partners	WFFC : Partnership and Participation: 14 - 15 - 17 - 32.2 MDG 8
5.4. In target regions, 70% of parents and families are further empowered in child care, development and protection.	5.4.1. % of parents in target regions who have adopted appropriate knowledge, practices and skills. 5.4.2. % of parents in the target regions who are reached by the communication package 5.4.3. Progress in developing the communication package.	Various surveys Focus groups Evaluation	Observatory of children's rights, programme partners MASSTE-MEF- MoH- MASSTE Media
5.5. Adolescents and young people participate responsively in the targeted "youth friendly spaces/services".	5.5.1. Number of adolescents and & young people attending "friendly services". 5.5.2. Number of services that have active participation of adolescents and young people in management of services.	Surveys involving young people and adolescents	Other UN agencies, concerned ministries and departments, adolescents and young people.

* Unless specified, results are expected to be achieved by end 2011.