

Gender and relationships

a practical action kit for young people

Gender has an enormous impact on male and female behaviour, but most young people are not aware of the effect of gender on their lives.

This kit will help peer educators and adults working with young people, to integrate gender issues into sexual and reproductive health programmes.

It includes:

-  Basic fact sheets
-  Information on planning programmes
-  Activities for peer educators and facilitators
-  Activities for young people
-  Resource list
