

The East Asia/Pacific region has the highest level of household iodized salt consumption in the developing world after Latin America/Caribbean. That success is fuelled by China, where 93 per cent of households consume iodized salt.

Indicator: Percentage of households consuming adequately iodized salt (15 parts or more per million).

Source: UNICEF analysis of latest available estimates of household consumption of adequately iodized salt (2000–2004).

