	Script You're watching UNICEF television. As the humanitarian situation in the Gaza Strip deteriorates, the people of Gaza are colder and hungrier than ever before. With hardly any water, food and electricity... the situation grows increasingly desperate In Al Shatee Camp in Northern Gaza, this school is being used as a shelter. Limited access to water poses major sanitation hazards and health threats. Families are rarely able to wash their dishes and their clothes, and children often go days without bathing. SOUNDBITE (Arabic): Amal Younis Diab Zayed, 9.5 years old : "We came here because there is no water and electricity and our houses were destroyed. We are children, we should play freely. We sleep hungry, and we don't have water or electricity. We have a right to live like other children. This is not a life, this is not in our hands. Only yesterday, I was able to bathe since the beginning of the shelling." The United Nations Relief and Works Agency is currently operating 41 shelters and providing them with supplies. UNICEF continues to scale up the relief effort in Gaza, providing access to clean water to those who need it most. However, approximately 500,000 Palestinians in the Gaza Strip still do not have access to running water, and sewage continues to flow in the streets. SOUNDBITE (Arabic): Kawthar Yousef Zeid from Al Salateen area, 38	Shotlist <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
