

• Running Time

2:38

• Narrator Name

Amy Bennett

Script

Villagers went back to their burnt homes to comb through the remains after an attack on their village in Sirba in West Darfur.

There, they were met with an even more unpleasant discovery. It has emerged that close to 43 children have gone missing - as a result of a three-day attack which started on in West Darfur's northern corridor.

Animals were also not spared ... many lay burnt near the destroyed homesteads.

SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Abu Bakr Eissa, Internally Displaced Student: "Part of our family are here and part are in Chad. We are four people here and the rest, around seven people are in Chad. We want at least security. If there were (international) forces here security should be 100 percent so then we would stay."

A United Nations assessment mission to Sirba town found that the missing children fled from their homes and schools during the attack.

SOUNDBITE (English) Ted Chaiban, UNICEF Representative for Sudan: "As different forces fight whether it's JEM (Justice and Equality Movement) or the government or anybody else

Shotlist

1. Wide shot, burnt compound
2. Med shot, burnt house with pots front
3. Med shot, burnt animal
4. Wide shot, women picking through burnt items
5. Med shot, woman and child
6. Med shot, burn bed frame
7. Wide shot, woman going through burnt remains
8. Wide shot, UNAMID troops with IDP's
9. Med shot, burnt hut with clay pot inside
10. Med shot, UNAMID troops on guard
11. Med shot, IDP standing next to burnt house
12. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Abu Bakr Eissa, Internally Displaced Student
"Part of our family are here and part are in Chad. We are four people here and the rest, around seven people are in Chad. We want at least security. If there were (international) forces here security should be 100 percent so then we would stay."
13. Wide shot, IDP's gather in school compound
14. Close up, baby playing
15. Med shot, mother and baby
16. Wide shot, IDP's at the school
17. SOUNDBITE (English) Ted Chaiban, UNICEF Representative for Sudan
"As different forces fight whether it's JEM (Justice and involve in the fighting, they should protect things like health centers, schools, water points and also avoid anything that allows children to be separated from their families. Things like schools should be safe havens, civilian population should be able to hide protect themselves by going to a school and be safe from the fighting. So these are community assets which are necessary for the community to continue to exist after the fighting has subsided must be respected by the different parties that are fighting.”

Efforts to bring humanitarian relief to those in need are being severely undermined as attacks continue on the populations in Darfur.

SOUNDBITE (English) Aameera Haq, Humanitarian Coordinator for Sudan

“Coming up here is when reality hits and its talking to women who’ve lost their children or people who don’t have food, who are feeling so insecure and venerable and I think it make the whole situation just very real. So you understand what the needs are and what the gaps are in terms of what the people need and what the government and the international community to try and respond to this very real need.”

And the bombardments continue in West Darfur – the most recent in Jebel Moun where attacks affected around 20,000 people ... those people are now in greatly in need of humanitarian assistance,

Equality Movement) or the government or anybody else involve in the fighting, they should protect things like health centers, schools, water points and also avoid anything that allows children to be separated from their families. Things like schools should be safe havens, civilian population should be able to hide protect themselves by going to a school and be safe from the fighting. So these are community assets which are necessary for the community to continue to exist after the fighting has subsided must be respected by the different parties that are fighting.”

18. Wide shot, UN agencies Heads talking with the Community leaders

19. Med shot, community leaders

20. Med shot, Aameera Haq, talking to IDP woman

21. Close up, woman crying

22. Med shot, Aameera comforting the woman

23. SOUNDBITE (English) Aameera Haq, Humanitarian Coordinator for Sudan

“Coming up here is when reality hits and its talking to women who’ve lost their children or people who don’t have food, who are feeling so insecure and venerable and I think it make the whole situation just very real. So you understand what the needs are and what the gaps are in terms of what the people need and what the government and the international community to try and respond to this very real

	adding to the already overburdened humanitarian situation.	need.” 24. Wide shot, children seating of a stairway 25. Med shot, children laughing
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • International version split track • Running Time 	2:33
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Video news footage 1 • Running Time 	1:36
	Shotlist <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Wide shot, burnt compound 2. Med shot, burnt house with pots front 3. Med shot, burnt animal 4. Wide shot, women picking through burnt items 5. Med shot, woman and child 6. Med shot, burnt bed frame 7. Wide shot, woman going through burnt remains 8. Wide shot, UNAMID troops with internally displaced persons (IDPs) 9. Med shot, burnt hut with clay pot inside 10. Med shot, UNAMID troops on guard 11. Med shot, IDPs standing next to burnt house 12. Wide shot, IDPs gather in school compound 13. Close up, baby playing 14. Med shot, mother and baby 15. Wide shot, IDPs at the school 16. Wide shot, UN agencies Heads talking with the Community leaders 17. Med shot, community leaders 18. Med shot, Ameera Haq, talking to IDP woman 19. Close up, woman crying 20. Med shot, Ameera comforting the woman 21. Wide shot, children sitting on stairs 22. Med shot, children laughing
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Video news footage 2 • Running Time 	1:25
	Shotlist <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Abu Bakr Eissa, Internally Displaced Student: “Part of our family are here and part are in Chad. We are four people here and the rest, around seven people are in Chad. We want at least security. If there were (international) forces here security should be 100 percent so then we would stay.”

2. SOUNDBITE (English) Ted Chaiban, UNICEF Representative for Sudan: “As different forces fight whether it’s JEM (Justice and Equality Movement) or the government or anybody else involve in the fighting, they should protect things like health centers, schools, water points and also avoid anything that allows children to be separated from their families. Things like schools should be safe heavens, civilian population should be able to hide protect themselves by going to a school and be safe from the fighting. So these are community assets which are necessary for the community to continue to exist after the fighting has subsided must be respected by the different parties that are fighting.”
3. SOUNDBITE (English) Ameera Haq, Humanitarian Coordinator for Sudan: “Coming up here is when reality hits and its talking to women who’ve lost their children or people who don’t have food, who are feeling so insecure and venerable and I think it make the whole situation just very real. So you understand what the needs are and what the gaps are in terms of what the people need and what the government and the international community to try and respond to this very real need.”

UNICEF PSA

- Note to NewsMarket:
Always annotate PSAs running time as TRT: 30 seconds

Script

Shotlist

UNICEF Interview Running Time

- Name of person being interviewed
- Name of person’s organization
- Person’s title

Xxx

Xxx

Xxx

xxx

Script