

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Running Time • Narrator Name 	2.25 Edward Bally <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th data-bbox="505 201 1049 247">Script</th> <th data-bbox="1049 201 1583 247">Shotlist</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td data-bbox="505 247 1049 2022"> Ms. Radhika Coomaraswamy, Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict visited Gaza during a four-day trip to the occupied Palestinian territory and southern Israel. She was in the region to assess the impact of the recent conflict on children, meet with relevant stakeholders, and advocate for the protection of children. Radhika listened in on a children’s group session facilitated by UNICEF partner Palestinian Centre for Democracy and Conflict Resolution. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni, 13 years old girl: “My mother my brothers and my nephew died in front of me. I couldn’t save them, I couldn’t do anything. I suffer everyday when I remember this. I can’t forget it at all. It was very difficult for me it was a big shock. The extensive destruction to homes, hospitals, schools and power, water and sanitation networks also has a devastating impact on children. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Suhaib Al Samuni, 8 years old boy: ‘I want my family back, my dad, my brother, more than anything, my uncles, my aunts, my cousins, they’re all gone. I also want my house back,” According to United Nations figures, nearly one third of the 1,380 Palestinian casualties are children. And many of them have witnessed violence against their family members and are severely distressed. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Kanan Al Samuni, 12 years old boy: “I wish I could live in peace, not under bombs and shells, just like they live in peace we want to live in peace as well.” Children in Gaza are in urgent need of humanitarian assistance, including the restoration of basic services and the immediate reconstruction of schools and hospitals. The UN has launched an appeal for $613 million to support 1.4 million Gazans over a nine-month period. UNICEF has requested a total of $34.5 million for child protection, psycho-social and education projects as well as interventions for sanitation, hygiene, and health. But the immediate need, as Ms. Coomaraswamy noted, is for aid agencies to gain better access </td> <td data-bbox="1049 247 1583 2022"> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Med shot, Radhika Coomaraswamy, Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, getting off UN vehicle and walking with aide 2. Med shot, Radhika walking towards tent with translator 3. Pan left, Radhika listening in on a children’s group session 4. Close up, Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni speaking 5. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni, 13 years old girl: “My mother my brothers and my nephew died in front of me. I couldn’t save them, I couldn’t do anything. I suffer everyday when I remember this. I can’t forget it at all. It was very difficult for me it was a big shock. 6. Med shot, rubbles 7. Pan left, destroyed building 8. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Suhaib Al Samuni, 8 years old boy: ‘I want my family back, my dad, my brother, more than anything, my uncles, my aunts, my cousins, they’re all gone. I also want my house back,” 9. Wide shot, Radhika listening to children’s group session 10. Close up, Radhika listening 11. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Kanan Al Samuni, 12 years old boy: “I wish I could live in peace, not under bombs and shells, just like they live in peace we want to live in peace as well.” 12. Med shot, tent with UN flag in the foreground 13. Med shot, Palestinian flag 14. Wide shot, tent 15. Close up, sign on tent reading: (Arabic) “Mental guidance and social point”, and in the upper left corner “UNICEF” 16. Med shot, Radhika getting in UN vehicle with aides and journalists 17. Med shot, UN cars 18. Med shot, UN convoy leaving </td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Script	Shotlist	Ms. Radhika Coomaraswamy, Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict visited Gaza during a four-day trip to the occupied Palestinian territory and southern Israel. She was in the region to assess the impact of the recent conflict on children, meet with relevant stakeholders, and advocate for the protection of children. Radhika listened in on a children’s group session facilitated by UNICEF partner Palestinian Centre for Democracy and Conflict Resolution. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni, 13 years old girl: “My mother my brothers and my nephew died in front of me. I couldn’t save them, I couldn’t do anything. I suffer everyday when I remember this. I can’t forget it at all. It was very difficult for me it was a big shock. The extensive destruction to homes, hospitals, schools and power, water and sanitation networks also has a devastating impact on children. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Suhaib Al Samuni, 8 years old boy: ‘I want my family back, my dad, my brother, more than anything, my uncles, my aunts, my cousins, they’re all gone. I also want my house back,” According to United Nations figures, nearly one third of the 1,380 Palestinian casualties are children. And many of them have witnessed violence against their family members and are severely distressed. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Kanan Al Samuni, 12 years old boy: “I wish I could live in peace, not under bombs and shells, just like they live in peace we want to live in peace as well.” Children in Gaza are in urgent need of humanitarian assistance, including the restoration of basic services and the immediate reconstruction of schools and hospitals. The UN has launched an appeal for $613 million to support 1.4 million Gazans over a nine-month period. UNICEF has requested a total of $34.5 million for child protection, psycho-social and education projects as well as interventions for sanitation, hygiene, and health. But the immediate need, as Ms. Coomaraswamy noted, is for aid agencies to gain better access	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Med shot, Radhika Coomaraswamy, Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, getting off UN vehicle and walking with aide 2. Med shot, Radhika walking towards tent with translator 3. Pan left, Radhika listening in on a children’s group session 4. Close up, Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni speaking 5. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni, 13 years old girl: “My mother my brothers and my nephew died in front of me. I couldn’t save them, I couldn’t do anything. I suffer everyday when I remember this. I can’t forget it at all. It was very difficult for me it was a big shock. 6. Med shot, rubbles 7. Pan left, destroyed building 8. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Suhaib Al Samuni, 8 years old boy: ‘I want my family back, my dad, my brother, more than anything, my uncles, my aunts, my cousins, they’re all gone. I also want my house back,” 9. Wide shot, Radhika listening to children’s group session 10. Close up, Radhika listening 11. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Kanan Al Samuni, 12 years old boy: “I wish I could live in peace, not under bombs and shells, just like they live in peace we want to live in peace as well.” 12. Med shot, tent with UN flag in the foreground 13. Med shot, Palestinian flag 14. Wide shot, tent 15. Close up, sign on tent reading: (Arabic) “Mental guidance and social point”, and in the upper left corner “UNICEF” 16. Med shot, Radhika getting in UN vehicle with aides and journalists 17. Med shot, UN cars 18. Med shot, UN convoy leaving
Script	Shotlist
Ms. Radhika Coomaraswamy, Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict visited Gaza during a four-day trip to the occupied Palestinian territory and southern Israel. She was in the region to assess the impact of the recent conflict on children, meet with relevant stakeholders, and advocate for the protection of children. Radhika listened in on a children’s group session facilitated by UNICEF partner Palestinian Centre for Democracy and Conflict Resolution. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni, 13 years old girl: “My mother my brothers and my nephew died in front of me. I couldn’t save them, I couldn’t do anything. I suffer everyday when I remember this. I can’t forget it at all. It was very difficult for me it was a big shock. The extensive destruction to homes, hospitals, schools and power, water and sanitation networks also has a devastating impact on children. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Suhaib Al Samuni, 8 years old boy: ‘I want my family back, my dad, my brother, more than anything, my uncles, my aunts, my cousins, they’re all gone. I also want my house back,” According to United Nations figures, nearly one third of the 1,380 Palestinian casualties are children. And many of them have witnessed violence against their family members and are severely distressed. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Kanan Al Samuni, 12 years old boy: “I wish I could live in peace, not under bombs and shells, just like they live in peace we want to live in peace as well.” Children in Gaza are in urgent need of humanitarian assistance, including the restoration of basic services and the immediate reconstruction of schools and hospitals. The UN has launched an appeal for $613 million to support 1.4 million Gazans over a nine-month period. UNICEF has requested a total of $34.5 million for child protection, psycho-social and education projects as well as interventions for sanitation, hygiene, and health. But the immediate need, as Ms. Coomaraswamy noted, is for aid agencies to gain better access	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Med shot, Radhika Coomaraswamy, Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, getting off UN vehicle and walking with aide 2. Med shot, Radhika walking towards tent with translator 3. Pan left, Radhika listening in on a children’s group session 4. Close up, Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni speaking 5. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni, 13 years old girl: “My mother my brothers and my nephew died in front of me. I couldn’t save them, I couldn’t do anything. I suffer everyday when I remember this. I can’t forget it at all. It was very difficult for me it was a big shock. 6. Med shot, rubbles 7. Pan left, destroyed building 8. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Suhaib Al Samuni, 8 years old boy: ‘I want my family back, my dad, my brother, more than anything, my uncles, my aunts, my cousins, they’re all gone. I also want my house back,” 9. Wide shot, Radhika listening to children’s group session 10. Close up, Radhika listening 11. SOUNDBITE (Arabic) Kanan Al Samuni, 12 years old boy: “I wish I could live in peace, not under bombs and shells, just like they live in peace we want to live in peace as well.” 12. Med shot, tent with UN flag in the foreground 13. Med shot, Palestinian flag 14. Wide shot, tent 15. Close up, sign on tent reading: (Arabic) “Mental guidance and social point”, and in the upper left corner “UNICEF” 16. Med shot, Radhika getting in UN vehicle with aides and journalists 17. Med shot, UN cars 18. Med shot, UN convoy leaving to these young victims.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> International version split track Running Time
	Script	Same as above	Shotlist Same as above
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Video news footage 1 Running Time 	1.53
	Shotlist	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Med shot, United Nations convoy arriving, Radhika Coomaraswamy, Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, getting off UN vehicle and walking with aide Med shot, Radhika walking towards tent with translator Pan left, Radhika listening in on a children's group session Close up, Almaza Hilmi Al Samuni speaking Close up, Radhika listening Wide shot, Radhika listening to children's group session Wide shot, destroyed building Med shot, destroyed building Close up, rubbles Pan left, destroyed building
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Video news footage 2 Running Time 	1.43
	Shotlist	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Med shot, kids playing on a metallic turnstile, tent in the background Med shot, kids playing on a metallic turnstile, UN vehicle in the background Med shot, tent Close up, woman Med shot, tent with UN vehicle and cameramen in the foreground Wide shot, tent with kids playing on a turnstile Med shot, kids playing on a turnstile, wearing masks Med shot, Palestinian flag Pan left, tent Med shot, tent Close up, sign on tent reading: (Arabic) "Mental guidance and social point", and in the upper left corner "UNICEF" Med shot, Radhika getting in UN vehicle with aides and journalists Med shot, UN cars Med shot, UN convoy leaving
UNICEF PSA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Note to NewsMarket: Always annotate PSAs running time as TRT: 30 seconds
UNICEF Interview Running Time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Name of person being interviewed Name of person's organization Person's title 	Xxx
	Xxx
	Xxx
	xxx

Script