SOUNDBITE: (Urdu), a grade five student KANWAL: “Earlier we had to sit on the muddy ground. Now such a beautiful building has been constructed. We have space to play and lovely bench to sit on. And now we enjoy learning.”

SOUNDBITE: (Urdu), principal of the school NIGHAT ABBASI: “All facilities required to continue and complete primary education are present in this school by the grace of God.”

Where only one school house stood before the 2005 devastation in Kashmir, UNICEF and its partners have now constructed 16 new schools in earthquake-affected areas.
