

WASH in Schools

promotes gender equality

1 WASH in Schools fosters social inclusion and individual respect.

2 Girls are absent less from school where there is more hand washing and separate sanitation facilities.

3 Girls who take advantage of educational opportunities can better protect themselves against exploitation.