

Are you passionate about changing the world for children? Do you want to use your skills and expertise in challenging environments to make a lasting difference for children? UNICEF would like to hear from you.

For 60 years, UNICEF has been the world's leader for children, working in over 150 countries and territories to help children survive and thrive, from early childhood through adolescence. The world's largest provider of vaccines for developing countries, UNICEF supports child health and nutrition, good water and sanitation, quality basic education for boys and girls, and the protection of children from violence, exploitation, and AIDS. UNICEF is funded entirely by the voluntary contributions of individuals, businesses, foundations and governments.

UNICEF's focus areas are Child Survival and Development, Basic Education and Gender Equality, HIV/AIDS and Children, Child Protection and Policy Advocacy and Partnerships. It upholds the Convention on the Rights of the Child and works for the Millennium Development Goals and for progress promised in the United Nations Charter.

We seek committed specialists in our Focus Areas as well as in the areas of Social Policy, Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation, Advocacy and Communication and Fundraising, and Management, Operations, Finance, Human Resources, Information Technology and Audit.

Minimum requirements:

- Advanced university degree in one of the aforementioned areas;
- Eight to twelve years of relevant professional experience (some of which in developing countries or in development related work);
- High level of technical expertise;
- Knowledge of at least two UN working languages (English and either Arabic, Chinese, French, Russian or Spanish).

Please visit www.unicef.org/employ

UNICEF's salary and benefits package is based on the United Nations Common System; it includes full medical and dental coverage, annual leave, rental subsidy, dependency allowance and a pension scheme.

UNICEF is committed to gender equality in its mandate and its staff. Well qualified candidates, particularly females are strongly encouraged to apply.