

Costed evaluation plan – Nigeria – UNICEF country programme of cooperation, 2018–2022

The table draws from the Integrated Monitoring and Evaluation Plan to cover present evaluations planned for the duration of the programme cycle. Additional guidance on financial resources for evaluation is outlined in the revised Evaluation Policy (E/ICEF/2013/14).

Evaluation title	UNDAF (or equivalent) outcome	UNICEF draft Strategic Plan, 2018-2021 Goal Areas	Criteria used for selection	Intended use of evaluation findings	Expected start date	Anticipated cost and provisional source of funding (regular resources (RR), other resources (OR)) in United States dollars
Impact evaluation of UNICEF support to implementation of the child protection system strengthening approach to prevent violence against children in target states.	By 2022, protection systems and services are strengthened to more effectively prevent and respond to violence, abuse, exploitation and harmful traditional norms.	Improved and equitable prevention of and response to violence, abuse, exploitation and neglect of children.	Programme component evaluation cycle.  Long period of unevaluated programme implementation.	To inform decision-making on policies, development and organizational effectiveness; organizational learning, advocacy and knowledge-sharing and promote accountability.	2020	580 000 (RR)
Evaluation of UNICEF support to girls' education with respect to the Girls' Education Project, Phase 3.	By 2022, Nigerian children and youth/adults, especially those from excluded groups, have improved access to and benefit from equitable and quality education.	Improved and equitable access to and completion of quality, inclusive education, with a focus on improving learning outcomes.	As specified in the project's criteria: for each programme outcome result component, when expenditure has reached $10 million.	To inform decision-making on policies, development and organizational effectiveness; organizational learning, advocacy and knowledge-sharing and promote accountability.	2019	250 000 (RR)
Impact evaluation of the Global Affairs Canada-supported project on strengthening primary health care revitalization in hard-to-reach communities	By 2022, Nigerians, with a special focus on the most disadvantaged, have access to and use quality health and HIV services.	Improved and equitable use of high-impact maternal and child health interventions from pregnancy to adolescence and promotion of health behaviours.	As specified in the project's criteria: for each programme outcome result component, when expenditure has reached $10 million.	To inform decision-making on policies, development and organizational effectiveness; organizational learning, advocacy and knowledge-sharing and promote accountability.	2019	400 000 (RR)
Evaluation of the UNICEF-supported integrated nutrition package in the 'one PHC centre per ward' approach	By 2022, Nigerians, with a special focus on the most disadvantaged, have access to and use quality health and HIV services.	Children, adolescent mothers and women, particularly in vulnerable and deprived areas, have increased access to quality services and information, and adopt appropriate nutritional practices to prevent and treat malnutrition.	As specified in the project's criteria: for each programme outcome result component, when expenditure has reached $10 million.	To inform decision-making on policies, development and organizational effectiveness; organizational learning, advocacy and knowledge-sharing and promote accountability.	2022	400 000 (RR)

Evaluation title	UNDAF (or equivalent) outcome	UNICEF draft Strategic Plan, 2018-2021 Goal Areas	Criteria used for selection	Intended use of evaluation findings	Expected start date	Anticipated cost and provisional source of funding (regular resources (RR), other resources (OR)) in United States dollars
Impact evaluation of micronutrient powder programme in emergency states.	By 2022, improved nutritional status of all Nigerians, with particular emphasis on the most vulnerable groups, such as children, adolescents, women, the elderly, and groups with special nutritional needs.	Children, adolescent mothers and women, particularly in vulnerable and deprived areas, have increased access to quality services and information, and adopt appropriate nutritional practices to prevent and treat malnutrition.	As specified in the project's criteria: for each programme outcome result component, when expenditure has reached $10 million.	To inform decision-making on policies, development and organizational effectiveness; organizational learning, advocacy and knowledge-sharing and promote accountability.	2018	350 000 (RR)
Impact evaluation of UNICEF support in improving the equitable use of safe drinking water, sanitation and healthy environments, and improved hygiene practices.	By 2022, Nigerians, especially women and girls and those in vulnerable situations in rural and urban settings, have equitable and sustainable access to and use a safe and affordable water supply, sanitation and hygiene practices in communities and in institutions, and live in an open-defecation-free environment.	Improved and equitable use of safe drinking water, healthy environments, and improved sanitation hygiene practices.	Required programme component when expenditure has reached $10 million.  Programme replication or scale-up.	To inform decision-making on policies, development and organizational effectiveness; organizational learning, advocacy and knowledge-sharing and promote accountability.	2021	580 000 (RR)
Evaluation of UNICEF effectiveness in supporting government partners in implementing the national plan to fast track the HIV response for children and adolescents to achieve the '90 90 90' targets by 2020.	By 2022, Nigerians, with a special focus on the most disadvantaged, have access to and use quality health and HIV services.	Improved policy environment and systems for disadvantaged and excluded children, guided by improved knowledge and data.	Long period of unevaluated programme implementation.  Required programme component when expenditure has reached $10 million.	To assess effectiveness and to identify lessons learned to inform the rest of the cycle. Inform decision-making on policies, development and organizational effectiveness and for programme design. Enhance UNICEF accountability to key stakeholders and contribute to learning and knowledge-sharing.	2018	250 000 (RR)
Evaluation of UNICEF effectiveness in strengthening the capacity of relevant ministries, departments and	By 2022, the National Social Protection Policy is domesticated and implemented and adequately financed at	Improved policy environment and systems that effectively respond to increasing knowledge and	Long period of unevaluated programme implementation.	To inform decision-making on policies, development and organizational effectiveness;	2021	250 000 (RR)

Evaluation title	UNDAF (or equivalent) outcome	UNICEF draft Strategic Plan, 2018-2021 Goal Areas	Criteria used for selection	Intended use of evaluation findings	Expected start date	Anticipated cost and provisional source of funding (regular resources (RR), other resources (OR)) in United States dollars
agencies at federal and state levels in domesticating the National Social Protection Policy and on budget allocation.	federal and state levels, with support from the coordinated United Nations system.	data on disadvantaged and excluded children.		organizational learning, advocacy and knowledge-sharing and promote accountability.

_____