			Para 4: Takes note of the results achieved at mid-point, and requests UNICEF to accelerate efforts, while recognizing that the impact of COVID-19 on the implementation of the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021 during its second half is unknown;		UNICEF continues to pursue the milestones and targets set in the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021 as well as the areas identified for acceleration as part of the midterm review process.	In progress
		Data, Analytics, Planning and Monitoring (DAPM) Programme Division (PD) UNICEF management	Para 5: Notes the priority of UNICEF to accelerate the mainstreaming of action on climate change, and requests UNICEF to report to the Executive Board in the annual report of the Executive Director on its operational and programming targets, corresponding efforts and results, including through its environmental and social safeguards, to make its programmes and operations consistent with climate resilience and low-carbon development as outlined in the revised results framework for the UNICEF Strategic Plan, 2018–2021;	Annual session 2021	UNICEF will continue to reinforce environmental sustainability and climate resilience in its programming in multiple sectors, such as health and water, sanitation, hygiene (WASH). Several indicators were introduced in the Revised Results Framework of the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021 to measure UNICEF programmatic efforts. The midterm review of the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021 provided an opportunity for UNICEF to align its emission reduction targets with those set by the Secretary-General. UNICEF will report on these programmatic and operational efforts, as well as progress on the development of environmental and social safeguards policy, in the annual report for 2020 of the Executive Director of UNICEF, and relevant annexes. During this analysis phase the organisation is reviewing the situation of children, developing projections and trends, analysing lessons learned and conducting critical performance analysis. These findings will assist UNICEF during the current Strategic Plan as well as inform the one under development.
			Para 8: Requests UNICEF to take into account the lessons learned from the first two years of implementation of the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021, as well as from its previous strategic plans;	First regular session 2021 / Annual session 2021 / Second regular session 2021	The midterm review of the current Strategic Plan provides a wealth of material to inform the development of the next Strategic Plan, including the identification of areas for acceleration in order to ‘bend the curve’ with respect to achieving related Sustainable Development Goals targets. UNICEF continues to take into account those lessons learned as well as those from the previous Strategic Plans and ongoing evaluations/studies. These lessons learned will particularly inform the development of the Theory of Change of the Strategic Plan.	In progress
		Data, Analytics, Planning and Monitoring (DAPM) Programme Division (PD)	Para 9: Takes note with appreciation of the course of action proposed in the midterm review of the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021, and requests UNICEF to start preparations early for the Strategic Plan, 2022–2025, in full consultation with the Executive Board, taking into account the lessons learned from the midterm review, the joint report on the evaluability assessment of the common chapter, dated 30 March 2020, and the outcome of the 2020 quadrennial comprehensive policy review for development of the United Nations system, and also requests UNICEF to ensure a	Second regular session 2020	UNICEF held an informal briefing on road map to the UNICEF Strategic Plan, 2022–2025 on 20 August 2020. This was the first in a long series of proposed formal and informal engagements with the Executive Board and Member States on the development process which will build on the lessons learned during the midterm review as well as the findings of the joint report on the evaluability assessment of the Common Chapter. 	UNDS reform	Data, Analytics, Planning and Monitoring (DAPM) Public Partnership Division (PPD)	Para 10: Welcomes UNICEF progress towards achieving the outputs of the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021, and encourages UNICEF to further accelerate progress on the agreed commitments and mandates under the United Nations development system reform, including the funding compact and General Assembly resolutions on the quadrennial comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system, in the remaining period of the Strategic Plan, 2018–2021;		UNICEF presented a road map for the development of the UNICEF Strategic Plan, 2022–2025 to the Executive Board ahead of the 2020 second regular session. In managing the process of developing the next Strategic Plan, a five-phase approach is proposed, with regular updates to be provided to the Executive Board through formal sessions as well as informal briefings and consultations. This road map outlines areas of work which include the establishment of an internal workstream looking at the funding compact integration and acceleration from both partnership and financing lenses, as well as an internal core group which will support integration of the quadrennial comprehensive policy review and related issues. As articulated by the Executive Director in her opening remarks at the 2020 second regular session, UNICEF is committed to doing its part to contribute to the reform of the United Nations Development System more broadly. UNICEF representatives are actively working under the leadership of resident coordinators within their United Nations Country Teams to continue bringing the reform to life. This includes operationalizing the three outstanding reform elements — the Regional Review, the Multi-	In progress

2020/9 Annual report on UNICEF humanitarian action	Humanitarian action	Office of Emergency Programmes (EMOPS)	Para 1: Takes note with appreciation of the annual report on UNICEF humanitarian action and welcomes the outlined efforts and planned measures to further improve the quality and reach of UNICEF humanitarian efforts, including in response to the lessons learned outlined in the midterm review of the UNICEF Strategic Plan, 2018–2021;			n/a
			Para 2: Also takes note with appreciation of the increased focus of UNICEF on the most vulnerable children in humanitarian response, and requests UNICEF to report on its efforts in this regard, as well as on taking into account the specific needs of girls and boys and the promotion of gender equality in humanitarian response as outlined under its own Strategic Plan, 2018–2021, within its annual report on UNICEF humanitarian action;	Annual session 2021	UNICEF continues to strategically position and enhance internal operations for the promotion of gender equality in humanitarian response. In the soon to be launched revised Core Commitments for Children (CCC), inaugural gender equality commitments and benchmarks provide an organizational roadmap for collective and accountable actions across the organization. The COVID-19 pandemic simultaneously provides UNICEF an opportunity to pilot these commitments in its global response which has led to a number of real-time learnings including: (a) improvements in data systems and flexibility of approaches to collect, report and use sex-disaggregated data in the diversity of country settings; (b) increasing formal partnerships with grassroots organizations and networks advancing women and girls’ rights in designing, delivering and monitoring UNICEF response – including mask production and essential Gender-Based Violence (GBV) services; (c) impactful interagency advocacy and	In progress

2020/12 Evaluation reports and management responses	Evaluation	Evaluation Office (EO)	Para 1: Takes note of the following documents presented to the Executive Board at the annual session of 2020: (a) Annual report for 2019 on the evaluation function in UNICEF (E/ICEF/2020/12) and its management response (E/ICEF/2020/13); (b) Evaluation of the UNICEF Gender Action Plan, its summary (E/ICEF/2020/14) and its management response (E/ICEF/2020/15); Para 2: Also takes note of the increase in overall evaluation expenditure to 0.86 per cent of total programme expenditure in 2019;			n/a
		Evaluation Office (EO)	Para 3: Takes note with concern of the substantial regional differences with regard to expenditures, requests UNICEF to increase the number of evaluations submitted per year by country offices in regions with low submission rates compared with other regions, recalls its decisions 2018/10 and 2019/14 and requests UNICEF to accelerate efforts to reach the target of 1 per cent by the end of 2020 without compromising the quality of evaluations;	Annual session 2021	UNICEF is continuing to monitor delivery of evaluations by ensuring that the Offices abide by the coverage benchmarks outlined in the Evaluation Policy. To ensure that evaluation quality does not suffer, the Function continues to invest in quality assurance at all levels of UNICEF. This includes strengthening the quality assurance system at the regional and headquarters level, providing focused feedback in the independent Evaluation Quality Reviews as well as utilising GEROS as a learning platform for Offices to learn from other Highly Satisfactory evaluations conducted by other offices. The evaluation function is working earnestly to attain the 1 per cent evaluation expenditure policy target. This includes monitoring office progress using the country office performance scorecard. Examples of the draft tracking framework were presented during the joint update of UNDP, UNFPA, UNICEF, and UN-Women on progress toward implementing the Common Chapter on 26 August 2020. The Common Chapter tracking framework follows results-based management principles and has been informed by relevant findings of the evaluability assessment of the Common Chapter. The proposed tracking system uses relevant Sustainable Development Goals indicators to reflect results at outcome level; illustrates collaborative efforts using agency specific outputs based on the theories of change and comparative advantages of individual agencies; identifies output-level indicators from each agency's Strategic Plan Results Framework to reflect contributions of the respective agency in each of the six areas of collaborative advantage; and selects agency-specific organizational effectiveness and efficiency indicators to measure collaboration under the United Nations reform. UNICEF has been consulting with its Evaluation Office on the development of the draft tracking framework.
