Office of Research – Innocenti

Triple Mandate

Research
Generating high quality research and evidence on key questions on children’s rights, well-being and development. Finding emerging solutions to inform policies, programs and advocacy for children.

Research Facilitation
Equipping, training and supporting UNICEF and partners to generate, analyze and use evidence that conforms to ethical standards.

Convening & Thought Leadership
Convening leading experts, policymakers and practitioners to focus on next generation ideas, challenges and opportunities. Advancing global dialogue on solutions for children and young people.
