

Summary results matrix - Lebanon country programme 2010 - 2014

Expected key results	Key progress indicators	Means of verification of results	Major partners, partner frameworks and cooperation programmes	Expected key results in this component will contribute to:
UNICEF MTSP Focus Area 5      Policy advocacy and partnerships for children's rights  Country programme component: Social Policy
a. Updated and disaggregated data and in-depth analysis of the situation of children and adolescents is available to guide decision making and national policy formulation in the areas of health care, quality education and HIV/AIDS. Baseline: Limited availability of information regarding children and adolescents on those issues, which does not reflect existing disparities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Multiple Indicator Cluster Survey (MICS4) completed and final report largely distributed to government and other stakeholders</li> <li>– DevInfo functional at the Central Administration for Statistics (CAS) and website operational (2008 baseline: DevInfo software and training delivered to CAS, but the database is not publicly available)</li> <li>– Updated situation analysis (SitAn) of the realization of child and women's rights and of the impact of policies on children and women (Baseline: last SitAn published as a MICS 2000 summary report)</li> <li>– # of joint initiatives implemented with the World bank/ United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia (UN-ESCWA)/United Nations Country Team to build national capacity in data collection and analysis</li> </ul>	MICS4 Report Functioning DevInfo website Updated situational analysis report Central Administration for Statistics (CAS) and UNCT publications and data releases	Prime Minister's Office, Ministries of finance; social affairs; health; education; justice; internal and municipal affairs; water and energy; and youth and sports. Central Administration for Statistics (CAS), Council for Development and Reconstruction (CDR), Higher Council for Childhood (HCC), National AIDS Programme (NAP) World Bank, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), World Health Organization (WHO), United Nations Resident Coordinator's (UNRC) cell Universities and research centres National Statistical Master Plan, official and "shadow" reporting on the implementation of the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) and Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW)	United Nations Development Framework (UNDAF)  Outcomes expected by 2014: Outcome 1: Good governance reforms and practices, with specific focus on national dialogue and inclusive participation, and government effectiveness and accountability, are institutionalized at all levels. Outcome 2: Enhanced monitoring and accountability are in place for the effective implementation of human rights obligations and enjoyment of human rights. World Fit For Children (WFFC): cuts across all WFFC Millenium Development Goals (MDGs): cuts across all MDGs

Expected key results	Key progress indicators	Means of verification of results	Major partners, partner frameworks and cooperation programmes	Expected key results in this component will contribute to:
UNICEF MTSP Focus Area 5 Policy advocacy and partnerships for children's rights Country programme component: Social Policy
b. Quality analysis of social policies, national legislation, and budgetary allocations for the achievement of women and children's rights is produced and used for high level advocacy for social policy and resource allocation improvements. Baseline: Limited availability and inconsistency of information preventing its utilisation for national policy formulation and reform	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- # of sector policy analyses conducted through the lens of child and women's rights and respective MDG outcomes, with particular focus on income and regional disparities, budgetary performance, decentralisation policies, disaster risk management and humanitarian response capacities</li> <li>- # of high-level advocacy initiatives targeting policy-makers in the parliament and respective ministries, supported by a consolidated position of the civil society, academia and the media</li> </ul>	Sectoral reviews and analyses Public expenditure review reports Annual budget laws	Prime Minister's Office, ministries of finance; social affairs; health; education; justice; internal and municipal affairs; water and energy; and youth and sports Central Administration for Statistics (CAS), Council for Development and Reconstruction (CDR), Union of Municipalities, Higher Council for Childhood (HCC) World Bank, UNDP, WHO, UNRC cell, European Union donor coordination group on decentralisation Universities and research centres, electronic and printed media	UNDAF Outcomes expected by 2014: Outcome 1: Good governance reforms and practices, with specific focus on national dialogue and inclusive participation, and government effectiveness and accountability, are institutionalized at all levels. Outcome 2: Enhanced monitoring and accountability are in place for the effective implementation of human rights obligations and enjoyment of human rights. WFFC: cuts across all WFFC MDGs: cuts across all MDGs

Expected key results	Key progress indicators	Means of verification of results	Major partners, partner frameworks and cooperation programmes	Expected key results in this component will contribute to:
UNICEF MTSP Focus Area 4 Child protection from violence, exploitation and abuse Country programme component: Child Protection
c. Alternatives for judicial and administrative improvements in the area of child protection and juvenile justice are analysed and discussed with the view of enhancing a protective environment for all children living in Lebanon (including, non-Lebanese, with special focus on Palestinian children) Baseline: The CRC provisions are not sufficiently supported by protection systems and mechanisms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– targeted family welfare support measures as an alternative to children’s placement in residential care facilities are developed and submitted to respective ministries for endorsement (2008 baseline: none)</li> <li>– Child abuse detection, counselling and protection needs and resources are better known and incorporated in the new Child Protection Law framework (2008-2009 baseline: TBD by the service mapping and the “Palestinian Child” situational analysis)</li> <li>– an operational model of restorative juvenile justice measures is evaluated and presented to the Ministries of Justice and Finance for scaling up (2008 baseline: up to 13% of children and adolescents in conflict with the law benefit from measures alternative to imprisonment through a model intervention piloted by UNICEF and UNODC.</li> </ul>	UNICEF-supported national study of residential care institutions (as a 2007 baseline) Situation of Palestinian children report (as a 2009 baseline) Ministry of Justice’s and United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) annual data on juvenile offences MoSA, MoEHE, MoJ annual work plans and budgets UNICEF and partner NGOs project documentation	Ministries of Social Affairs (MoSA), Justice (MoJ), Education and Higher Education (MoEHE), national NGOs and academic institutions, Higher Council for Childhood, Save the Children, World Bank, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), municipal authorities and NGOs-members of the local Child Protection Networks, UNICEF-led technical group on de-institutionalization – all acting in the framework of Paris III reform package in the part related to social safety nets	UNDAF Outcome(s) expected by 2014: Outcome 2: Enhanced monitoring and accountability are in place for the effective implementation of human rights obligations and enjoyment of human rights. WFEC: Providing quality education Protecting against abuse, exploitation and violence MDGs: 1 and 2 Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger (Goal 1) Achieve universal primary education (Goal 2) Millennium declaration: Section VI (preventing and responding to violence, exploitation and abuse)

Expected key results	Key progress indicators	Means of verification of results	Major partners, partner frameworks and cooperation programmes	Expected key results in this component will contribute to:
UNICEF MTSP Focus Area 3 HIV/AIDS and children  UNICEF MTSP Focus Area 5 Policy advocacy and partnerships for children's rights Country programme component: Life Skills for Adolescence
d. National policies and systems for creating more space for adolescent participation and development of their life skills are discussed with the view of enhancing the national role and capacity of adolescents (Lebanese and Palestinians alike) in preventing conflict and violence, and promoting a culture of tolerance and peace. Baseline: Limited developmental and empowerment opportunities for adolescence and youth, especially in marginalised communities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- National Youth Policy outline developed with UNCT Youth Task Force support is endorsed by the Cabinet of Ministers as a framework for sector-specific policy initiatives</li> <li>- The role of national VCT centres in HIV risk reduction among adolescents and young people is assessed and evaluation used in advocating for the service scaling up (2008 baseline: 20 VCT centres just open)</li> <li>- # of multi-sectoral partnerships brokered by UNICEF with the view of demonstrating the availability of local resources to expand adolescents' and young people's access to developmental opportunities (non-formal education, sports, leisure, job orientation, etc.)</li> <li>- Examples of successful community-based initiatives promoting multi-confessional dialogue among young people are documented and presented for policy debate and replication</li> </ul>	Pan Arab Population and Family Health Survey System (PAPFAM) (2004), Living conditions of households survey (2004), Global school health survey (2005), Knowledge Attitude Practice (KAP) on HIV/AIDS matters (2005), opinion polls among school and university students (2006-2008), UNICEF's assessment of the 2006 war impact on youth (2007) – as baseline data sources National Aids Programme (NAP) data UNCT HIV/AIDS Task Force, UNCT Youth Task Force, UNICEF and partner NGO's project documentation Surveys and special studies	Ministries of Social Affairs, Justice, Education and Higher Education, Youth and Sports, national NGOs and academic institutions, Higher Council for Childhood, World Bank, UNDAF partners, municipal authorities and NGOs, National AIDS Programme (NAP)	UNDAF Outcome(s) expected by 2014: Outcome 3: Women are increasingly empowered to equally access the social, political, economic and legal spheres towards realization of their rights WFFC: Promoting Healthy Lives, and Combating HIV/AIDS MDGs: 2, 3 and 6 Achieve Universal Primary Education, Promote Gender Equality and Empower Women, and Combat HIV/AIDS Millennium declaration: Sections III (empowerment of women to combat poverty and stimulate development), V (genuine

Expected key results	Key progress indicators	Means of verification of results	Major partners, partner frameworks and cooperation programmes	Expected key results in this component will contribute to:
UNICEF MTSP Focus Area 3    HIV/AIDS and children  UNICEF MTSP Focus Area 5    Policy advocacy and partnerships for children’s rights Country programme component: Life Skills for Adolescence participation by all citizens, including children and young people) and VI (preventing and responding to violence, exploitation and abuse)