<sup>10</sup> At the first regular session of 1994, in compliance with General Assembly resolution 48/162 of 20 December 1993, the Executive Board agreed that the Chairman of the Governing Council would be known as 'President' of the Executive Board and would serve a term of office for a full calendar year. Ms. Anna Semamba Makinda (United Republic of Tanzania), who had been elected for the period 1 August 1993 to 31 July 1994, served as Chairman until February 1994, when she became President, serving until 31 December 1994.

<sup>11</sup> From 1967 to 1993, Governing Council terms were from 1 August to 31 July, and the officers included the Chairman, four Vice-Chairmen, the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Programme Committee and the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Committee on Administration and Finance. Both of those committees, which were not established until 1961, were abolished as part of the implementation of General Assembly resolution 48/162, through decision 1994/R.1.1 (E/ICEF/1994/34/Rev.1).

<sup>12</sup> In 1992, the Executive Board decided that, effective 1 August 1993, in the election of the Chairman, there would be due regard for equitable geographic rotation among the five regional groups (decision 1992/7, E/ICEF/1992/14). Until then, the chairmanship had alternated each year between industrialized and developing countries, as had the chairmanship of the two committees.
