ANNEX 2 - UNICEF REGIONAL THEORY OF CHANGE FOR RKLA1

RISKS AND ASSUMPTIONS

Progressive realisation of child’s right to a family environment

Reduction of no. and rate of children in large scale residential care

Improved ratio of children in family-based care versus residential care

Increase of no. and rate of children in any form of family-based care

Overall reduction of no. and rate of children living in formal care (residential care and family-based care)

UNICEF's contribution + Stakeholders' contribution

SYSTEM CHANGE (OUTCOMES):

Social norms
Legislation and policy
Budget and expenditure
Management and coordination
Access to services
Availability of commodities
Financial access
Social and cultural practices
Continued use of services
Quality of services

UNICEF Core Roles

Voice for children
M & E
Policy advice
Leveraging resources
Facilitating national dialogue
Knowledge exchange
Modelling/Piloting

INPUTS:

Financial resources
Human resources
Governance and management systems

OUTPUTS:

UNICEF Inputs

IMPACTS:

Reduction of no. and rate of children in large scale residential care

Improved ratio of children in family-based care versus residential care

Increase of no. and rate of children in any form of family-based care

Overall reduction of no. and rate of children living in formal care (residential care and family-based care)

Progressive realisation of child’s right to a family environment