UNICEF seeks to promote diversity, inclusion and gender equality in all its engagements. The Office of the Secretary of the Executive Board encourages broad geographical participation and participation by women in Executive Board meetings and discussions in order to promote geographical diversity and gender balance in intergovernmental decision-making forums and processes.

UNICEF reiterates its commitment to zero tolerance for all forms of harassment, including sexual harassment, and kindly reminds participants that the Executive Board sessions follow the Code of Conduct to prevent harassment, including sexual harassment, at United Nations system events.

To ensure that the Executive Board session is fully accessible, participants are kindly reminded of a few basic tenets that will enable all delegates to enjoy the full benefit of the deliberations. To the extent possible, speakers are encouraged to introduce themselves and to read out and/or verbally describe visual materials in slides, charts and graphs.

The United Nations provides a range of tools and services in support of persons with disabilities through its Accessibility Centre (located in the first basement level of the Conference Building). UNICEF would be happy to put delegates in touch with the Centre, or with advance notice they can let us know what services they might wish the organization to procure on their behalf.
