

Protection from Sexual Exploitation and Abuse

Miles Hastie, Senior Advisor (Safeguarding)

Orientation for the 2023 Executive Board
12 January 2023

Protection and assistance
without fear and timely,
confidential, effective and
safe investigation,
assistance and support.

Fulfilment of UN and
UNICEF policy to safeguard those we serve.

Orientation for the 2023 Executive Board
12 January 2023

295

Alleged victims of SEA, involving UNICEF personnel or partners implementing its programmes, received in last 5 years

Orientation for the 2023 Executive Board
12 January 2023

Strategy (2019)

- Accountability, Prevention and Gender Equality
- Reporting mechanisms
- Investigations and sanctions
- Response (survivor-centered)
- Partners engaged in fight

Orientation for the 2023 Executive Board
12 January 2023

Monitoring and Reporting on Progress

- Strategic Plan and indicators (First Regular Session)
- Global progress and country initiatives (Annual Session)

Orientation for the 2023 Executive Board
12 January 2023

Past Progress

1 98%

Of personnel know PSEA standards and think UNICEF takes them seriously

3 400%

Increased reach of community reporting mechanisms

2 >4200

Partners have been assessed for their capacity to address SEA, most supported with gaps

4 17.7M

Reached with Gender-Based Violence services

Thank you.

Orientation for the 2023 Executive Board
12 January 2023

unicef  | for every child