

Update on protection from sexual exploitation and abuse

Johanna Eriksson Takyo
Senior Adviser a.i., Safeguarding

UNICEF Executive Board

2023 annual session (13–16 June 2023)

Item 7: Update on protection from sexual exploitation and abuse

Reference document: E/ICEF/2023/12

unicef
for every child

Key takeaways

- Organizational priority and 2023 Action Plan reflects broad collaboration
- Significant investments ($40m)
- 87% of offices have PSEA plans; over 500 staff are engaged in the community of practice
- Improved monitoring and benchmarking on strategic objectives

A victim-centred approach for reporting, investigation and support services

- 49 million have information on reporting incidents
- 49 allegations registered in UN Secretary-General tracker
- Survivors of SEA receiving services including medical, legal and psychosocial support – programme reach of 880,000 women and girls

Prevention

- 99% of staff think approaches on PSEA are clear
- 95% of staff members completed PSEA training
- Having the “right” people on board through ClearCheck and performance management
- Joint UN assessment of implementing partners to build capacity
- Vendors and suppliers

Inter-agency collaboration

Key player in inter-agency collaboration at global and local levels

- Leading work on Victims Assistance Protocol
- Track progress on a global dashboard
- “SEA Risk Overview” index
- Bring PSEA into government partnerships

A person wearing a brown winter coat and a colorful patterned backpack is walking away from the camera on a snowy mountain slope. The background features rugged, snow-covered mountain peaks under a clear blue sky. The entire scene is bathed in a soft, blue light, creating a serene and cold atmosphere.

Thank you.