The annual programme of work for UNICEF Executive Board sessions is prepared and updated by the secretariat in consultation with the Bureau of the Executive Board, based on statutory requirements, requests arising from specific decisions by or discussions within the Executive Board, or proposals made by the secretariat. It is a flexible framework, which is subject to revisions as deemed appropriate in the course of the year.

The 2021 programme of work was presented to the Executive Board at its 2020 second regular session. Below is the most recent version of the 2021 programme of work, as at 20 April 2021.
