UNICEF Executive Board – Informal briefing – 24 June 2021
Item 6 (a): Country programme documents
Reference documents: E/ICEF/2021/P/L.24
Rationale for new CPD 1/2

High burden of child rights deprivation across several areas

Need for acceleration and innovation

Burden of deprivation concentrated among indigenous population, the rural and urban poor, girls

Need for adjustments to advance equity

High human mobility – a crisis and symptom of lack of services and opportunities

Need for agile and rights-based support to government response

High level of vulnerability to natural and Anthropocene disasters

Need for permanent support to strengthen government and community capacities for preparedness and response

Scant availability of reliable and recent data sets

Need for support to generate robust data to inform planning and budgeting for children’s services
Rationale for new CPD 2/2

- High levels of VAC, inadequate protection services, challenges in justice system.
- Intense migration of children poses new challenges.

Slow improvement in education: Minimal coverage of ECD, limited for preschool and secondary, low learning achievements at all levels

Stunting remains very high (47%), slow decline in neonatal mortality, inequities in WASH

68% Child poverty + incipient social protection system

Disminución desnutrición Crónica desde 1989

Theory of Change

• Despite stark inequalities and an historically slow pace of change,

• Guatemala has a unique opportunity to reap a demographic dividend
How to transform Guatemala in one generation?

- Prevention and response to climate change and emergencies
- Addressing the causes and consequences of child migration
- Prevention and response to violence
- Integrated early Childhood Development
- Opportunities for Adolescents

More/better investment and social protection
