

Ethiopia

Key Results	UNICEF Target	Cluster Target
Nutrition
Children under 5 with acute malnutrition access appropriate therapeutic feeding programmes	280,000
Children under 5 and pregnant or breastfeeding women receive vitamin A twice a year	5 million children and 600,000 PLWs
Ensure sectoral coordination at federal, regional and sub-regional levels, as required – to prevent duplication and eliminate gaps in response
Health
Children under 5 equitably access life-saving interventions, including measles immunization, vitamin A supplementation, deworming and insecticide-treated bed nets through mass immunization (Somali and Afar regions)	157,248 children <5 years
Children, adolescents and women have sustained access to essential health services for high-impact preventive and curative interventions (consultations provided)	524,160
Population affected by acute watery diarrhoea (AWD) and measles have access to life-saving curative intervention	AWD: 8,410 ¹ Measles: 6,361 ²
WASH
Children and women access sufficient water of appropriate quality and quantity for drinking, cooking and personal hygiene	1,300,000

¹ Number of people treated.

² Number of people treated.

Children and women access toilets and washing facilities that are culturally appropriate, secure and sanitary, and are user-friendly and gender-appropriate	150 health facilities (750,000)
School-age children access safe water, sanitation and hygiene facilities in their learning environment	240,000 children
Children and women receive critical WASH-related information to prevent child illness, especially diarrhoea	2,000,000 women and children
Child Protection
Identification, documentation, family tracing and reunification of separated and unaccompanied children	1,000
People reached through community care structures to prevent, monitor, report and respond to violence, abuse and exploitation of children and women in emergencies	1,250,000
Strengthened psychosocial support services to children in emergencies, including the establishment of safe spaces and provision of recreation services	2,500
Established and strengthened monitoring, data collection system and reporting
Education
Children affected by draught supported with education supplies to improve enrolment and retention	60,000 children	470,000 children
Children affected by emergencies are provided with quality teaching, including psychosocial support , life skills and education materials	230,000 children	470,000 children

Education cluster engaged in response, preparedness and capacity building of MOE at central and decentralized level

HIV/AIDS

Children, young people and women access HIV and AIDS prevention, care and treatment during crises, including continuing care for those previously under treatment