

Sudan

Key Results	UNICEF Target	Cluster Target
Cluster Coordination
Nutrition coordination mechanism provides guidance to all partners regarding common standards, strategies and approaches; ensures gaps are identified and addressed
WASH coordination mechanism provides guidance to all partners regarding common standards, strategies and approaches; ensures gaps are identified and addressed
Education coordination mechanism provides guidance to all partners regarding common standards, strategies and approaches; ensures gaps are identified and addressed
Child protection and gender-based violence coordination mechanisms provide guidance to all partners regarding common standards, strategies and approaches; ensure gaps are identified and addressed
Nutrition
Pregnant and lactating women access infant and young child feeding counselling through mother support groups established	100 women's support groups	400 women's support groups
Children under 5 with acute malnutrition access appropriate therapeutic and/or supplementary feeding programmes	100,000 children <5	150,000 children <5
Children under 5 and pregnant or breastfeeding women have access to micronutrients, including vitamin A and deworming tablets	839,579 children <5 1,957,725 pregnant or breastfeeding women	4,839,579 children <5 1,957,725 pregnant or breastfeeding women
Improve quality and use of surveillance	90 per cent	90 per cent for monitoring, response and advocacy (100 per cent of SMART surveys score less than 15)

Health
Children under 5 access life-saving interventions, including measles immunization and insecticide-treated mosquito nets	5,617,900 children <5	Not applicable
Children and women have sustained access to essential health services for high-impact preventive and curative interventions	6,976,900 children <5	Not applicable
WASH
Affected population, including children and women, access sufficient water of appropriate quality and quantity for drinking, cooking and personal hygiene	2,000,000 affected population	4,000,000 affected population
Affected population, including children and women, access toilets and washing facilities that are culturally appropriate, secure and sanitary, and are user-friendly and gender-appropriate	300,000 affected population	640,000 affected population
School-age children access safe water, sanitation and hygiene facilities in their learning environment	240,000 school-age children	240,000 school-age children
Affected population, including children and women, receive critical WASH-related information to prevent child illness, especially diarrhoea	4,000,000 affected population	5,000,000 affected population
Child Protection
Monitoring and reporting on grave violations and other serious protection concerns for children and women is established/maintained	MRMR Task Force at federal level and MRM field coverage in three Darfur States, South Kordofan, Blue Nile, Abyei and any other conflict area	Functioning MRM task force and regular MRM reports produced
Key child protection mechanisms are strengthened in emergency-affected areas	100 community-based child protection networks supported (three in Darfur, Blue Nile, South Kordofan, Khartoum, White Nile,	100 community-based child protection networks supported

	Abyei)
Mechanisms to prevent separation of children from families, specifically Family Tracing and Reunion (FTR) systems, are strengthened, and unaccompanied and separated children receive family based care or an appropriate alternative	100 community-based child protection networks supported (three in Darfur, Blue Nile, South Kordofan, Khartoum, White Nile, Abyei)	100 community-based child protection networks supported
Affected communities are mobilized to prevent and address violence, exploitation and abuse of children and women, including gender-based violence	100 per cent registered children are either reunified with their families and communities or given appropriate alternative care (estimated 2,000 in 2011)	100 per cent registered children are either reunified with their families and communities or given appropriate alternative care (Estimated 2,000 in 2011)
Children and their caregivers have access to psychosocial support through child-friendly spaces, Family and Child Protection Units (FCPUs) and the Ministry of Social Welfare	50 communities in 6 states and 70 per cent of their population are reached by FGM campaign; 15 FCPUs are supported	50 per cent increase in the number of women and children, including survivors of gender-based violence, having access to protection services; 50 per cent of targeted communities establish referral pathways for gender-based violence and promote services for survivors
Mechanisms to prevent child recruitment are strengthened and children associated with armed forces/groups are reintegrated into their families and communities	20,000 children	70,000 children
Children and communities in affected areas have access to mine/unexploded ordnance risk education	40,000 children in 8 states receive mine-risk education from 800 teachers	100,000 individuals reached by mine-risk education and provided with assistance as victims
Education
Children including preschool-age children, girls and other excluded children, access quality education opportunities	850,000 schoolchildren	150,000 schoolchildren
Safe and secure learning environments that promote the protection and well-being of learners is established	150,000 children in 700 child-friendly schools	350,000 children benefiting from child-friendly education environments
Psychosocial and health services for children and teachers are integrated in	100,000 textbooks printed with life-skills education for	1,000 teachers trained and using life-skills curriculum and pedagogy

educational response	teachers, basic education students and out-of-school students
Adolescents, young children and caregivers access appropriate life-skills programmes; information about the emergency; and educational options for those who have missed out on schooling, especially adolescents	100,000 out-of-school children back into school	50,000 out-of-school children back into school
HIV and AIDS
Number of pregnant women tested for HIV in Prevention of Mother to Child Transmission (PMTCT) settings	100,000	Not applicable
Number of young people reached for HIV prevention in out-of-school setting	645,000	Not applicable
Number of young people reached with HIV prevention messages in school setting	530,000	Not applicable
Children, young people and women have access to information on prevention, care and treatment	2,040,000	Not applicable
Children, young people and women have access to HIV and AIDS prevention, care and treatment during crisis, including continuing care for those previously under treatment	30,000	56,050 pregnant women tested for HIV, 562,400 young people in and out of school access HIV information to reduce their risk of infection