

Yemen

Key Results	UNICEF Target	Cluster Target
Cluster coordination
Nutrition coordination mechanism provides guidance to all partners regarding common standards, strategies and approaches; ensures gaps are identified and addressed
WASH coordination mechanism provides guidance to all partners regarding common standards, strategies and approaches; ensures gaps are identified and addressed
Education coordination mechanism provides guidance to all partners regarding common standards, strategies and approaches; ensures gaps are identified and addressed
Child protection and gender-based violence coordination mechanisms provide guidance to all partners regarding common standards, strategies and approaches; ensure gaps are identified and addressed
Nutrition
Women and children access support for appropriate infant and young child feeding in all major hospitals and health centres	300,000 women	1,079,600 women
Children under 5 with acute malnutrition access appropriate therapeutic and/or supplementary feeding programmes	105,000 children <5 with SAM (Severe Acute Malnutrition)	476,000 wasted U5 girls and boys (246,000 U5 Moderate Acute Malnutrition (MAM) and 130,000 U5 Severe Acute Malnutrition (SAM))
Children under 5 and pregnant and lactating women access micronutrients from direct supplementation of fortified	1,349,500 children <5	1,349,500 children <5

foods, supplements or multiple micronutrient preparations
Health
Children under 5 access life-saving interventions, including measles immunization, vitamin A supplementation, deworming and insecticide-treated bed nets, through population-based/community-based activities	1,360,000 children <5 in 5 governorates for measles immunization and vitamin A supplementation;  140,000 in Sa'ada for integrated package of services – EPI, vitamin A, treatment of illnesses	1,600,000 children <5 including in Abyan, Aden and Sana'a for measles immunization and vitamin A supplementation
WASH
Affected population, including children and women,* access sufficient water of appropriate quality and quantity for drinking, cooking and personal hygiene	169,000 affected population
Affected population, including children and women, access toilets and washing facilities that are culturally appropriate, secure and sanitary, and are user-friendly and gender-appropriate	67,000 affected population
School-age children access safe water, sanitation and hygiene facilities in their learning environment	42,000 schoolchildren
Child Protection
Monitoring and reporting on grave violations and other serious protection concerns for children and women is established, supported by UN Country Task Force providing monitoring for the most conflict-affected and vulnerable children	1.25 million affected children	1.25 million affected children; 100 Task Force and child protection sub-working group members trained on MRM
Key child protection mechanisms are strengthened in emergency-affected areas, including through birth registration and provision of legal aid services to conflict-affected and vulnerable children, including those illegally and arbitrarily detained	50,000 conflict-affected and vulnerable children receive free birth certificates; 1,000 conflict-affected and vulnerable children, including those illegally and arbitrarily detained, receive free legal aid services; legal action is taken in defence	50,000 conflict-affected and vulnerable children receive free birth certificates; 1,000 conflict affected and vulnerable children, including those illegally and arbitrarily detained, receive free legal aid services; legal action is taken in defence of 90 per cent of reported cases of

	of 90 per cent of reported cases of illegal and arbitrary detention	illegal and arbitrary detention
Mechanisms to prevent separation of children from families are strengthened, and unaccompanied and separated children receive family based care or an appropriate alternative	1,200 children are released from prisons and provided with interim care and protection	1,200 children registered, referred to interim care and protection services, and supported to reunite with families both in Yemen as well as abroad <sup>1</sup> .
Affected communities are mobilized to prevent and address violence, exploitation and abuse of children and women, including gender-based violence	50,000 persons	200,000 persons
Children and their caregivers have access to psychosocial support	250,000 children	300,000 children
Mechanisms to prevent child recruitment are strengthened; specifically, action plans are developed to end child recruitment with Government/Ministry of Defence and non-state actor Al-Houthi	Plans developed with Government/(Ministry of Defence and non- state actor Al-Houthi	Plans developed with Government/(Ministry of Defence and non- state actor Al-Houthi
Children and communities in affected areas have access to mine/UXO risk education	200,000 persons, including 100,000 children	200,000 persons, including 100,000 children

<sup>1</sup> The reunification with family abroad was facilitated for migrant minors who were supported to trace their families in their countries of origin, particularly for migrants from the Hon of Africa.