

SUPPLIER PROFILE FORM

All pages to be completed by Supplier and submitted to UNICEF.

It should be understood that falsified or misleading information could result in disqualification of the company as a registered potential supplier for UNICEF

Requested information is for UNICEF's internal use only and will be treated as confidential.

UNICEF fully subscribes to the Convention on the Rights of the Child and draws the attention of potential suppliers to Article 32 of the Convention which inter alia requires that a child shall be protected from performing any work that is likely to be hazardous or to interfere with the Child's education, or to be harmful to the Child's health or physical, mental, spiritual, moral or social development.

UNICEF reserves the right to terminate any contract unconditionally and without liability in the event that the supplier is discovered to be in non-compliance with the national labour laws and regulations with respect to child employment.

The supplier guarantees that neither the supplier's company, nor any of its affiliates, nor any subsidiaries controlled by the supplier's company, is engaged in the sale or manufacture of anti-personnel mines or of components utilized in the manufacture of anti-personnel mines (taken in its broader definition). The supplier recognises that a breach of this provision will entitle UNICEF to terminate its contract with the supplier.

The company, as well as any parent, subsidiary or affiliate companies:

Strive to abide by the UN Supplier Code of Conduct. (<http://www.un.org/Depts/ptd> - vendors)

Are not listed in, or associated with a company or individual listed in the UN Security Council Resolution 1267 List website. (www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/consolist.shtml)

UNICEF requires that all suppliers / contractors associated with a purchase order / contract observe the highest standard of ethics during procurement and execution of the work. In pursuance of this policy UNICEF

A. Defines for the purpose of this provision the terms set forth as follows:

- (i) Corrupt practice means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in the execution of a contract, and
- (ii) Fraudulent practice means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the client, and includes collusive practice among bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the client of the benefits of free and open competition;

B. Will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the selected supplier / contractor has engaged in any corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question;

C. Will declare a supplier / contractor ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to be awarded a UNICEF-financed contract if at any time it determines that it has engaged in any corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing a UNICEF-financed contract.

OFFICIALS NOT TO BENEFIT

The supplier / contractor warrants that no official of UNICEF or the United Nations has received or will be offered by the supplier / contractor any direct or indirect benefit arising from this contract or the award thereof. The supplier / contractor agree that breach of this provision is a breach of an essential term of the contract.

GUIDELINES ON GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

Suppliers / contractors shall not offer gifts or hospitality to UNICEF staff members. Recreational trips to sporting or cultural events, theme parks or offers of holidays, transportation, or invitations to extravagant lunches or dinners are also prohibited.

DISCLOSURE OF SANCTIONS OR TEMPORARY SUSPENSION

The Contractor should not be suspended, debarred, or otherwise identified as ineligible by any organization within the World Bank Group or any other International or UN Organisation. The Contractor is therefore required to disclose to UNICEF whether its company, or any of its affiliates, is subject to any sanction or temporary suspension imposed by the World Bank Group or any other International or UN Organisation at the time of execution of this agreement and throughout the duration of the agreement period. The Contractor recognises that a breach of this provision will entitle UNICEF to terminate its supply contract with the Contractor.

Have no outstanding or pending bankruptcy, judgment or legal action that could impair a supplier / contractor's ability to continue operating as a going concern.

Agents, intermediaries and other persons retained by these companies, as well as all employees agree to cooperate with the United Nations during any investigative processes undertaken by them, either before during or after execution of a contract, including providing all required documents, company records, access to employees, officers and staff, as well as financial information.
