

BID CLARIFICATION on DECLARATION FORM

Dear Valued Bidders,

You might have noticed that UNICEF recently included Declaration Form in all our tender documents effective from 5th of May 2023. All bidders are expected to provide the relevant answers to all the questions in accordance with the facts of your company's context.

As we noticed confusion from some bidders in responding to the declaration form, hereby we would like to provide guidance to ensure correct answers are provided in the declaration form:

Please note by ticking YES in the declaration form, you declare that your company is found NOT GUILTY to all questions being asked in the declaration form. As the contrary, by ticking NO in the declaration form, you declare that your company is found GUILTY to all questions being asked in the declaration form. For instance, to the 1st question of declaration, if you ticked NO, you are confirming to UNICEF that your company has been found doing fraud, corruption, engaged with criminal organization, engaged with money laundering, etc. The same applies to the rest of the questions in the declaration form. Therefore, please read carefully on the questions before providing your answers.
