Antecedentes

Desarrollo infantil y crianza con ternura

UNICEF concede una principal importancia a los primeros años de vida de los niños y niñas. Aboga para que la inversión en esta etapa de la vida sea la suficiente para garantizar el desarrollo integral de la primera infancia en igualdad de condiciones y oportunidades.

La evidencia demuestra que, para garantizar un adecuado desarrollo infantil temprano, los niños y niñas tienen que tener acceso a una buena salud básica, una nutrición adecuada, el inicio de una educación pre-básica y a una protección social y familiar que evite la violencia. Está documentado que el desarrollo integral se ve también afectado por las pautas de crianza que, si son discriminatorias por razones de género, pueden afectar negativamente la personalidad y el desarrollo de niños y niñas.

No se encuentran investigaciones que permitan conocer las principales pautas, patrones y prácticas de crianzas en la primera infancia de Nicaragua, y mucho menos en pueblos indígenas. Es necesario realizar estudios que permitan contar con una línea de base sobre los saberes y las prácticas de crianza, incluidos en los pueblos indígenas, con la finalidad de contribuir a la construcción de un enfoque intercultural para los programas dirigidos a los niños y niñas en la primera infancia.

	Protección de la Infancia contra la Violencia Sexual Dentro del Programa de Cooperación de UNICEF Nicaragua para 2018 # 2023, el componente de Protección de la Niñez y Participación de Adolescentes, busca brindar protagonismo, prevención, protección y asistencia a niñas, niños y adolescentes de tal modo que cuenten con entornos protectores que permitan su auto cuidado y el cuidado de sus pares, así como el compromiso de todos los miembros de la sociedad, el estado y las familias para que logren desarrollarse plenamente sin riesgos ni exclusión. La violencia sexual constituye un problema de salud pública y de derechos humanos, por su impacto sobre el individuo, la familia y la sociedad, siendo las principales víctimas niñas, niños y adolescentes. Este problema tiene secuelas emocionales y psicológicas para quienes lo sufren, como consecuencia a corto y a largo plazo afecta la salud mental de las víctimas. La violencia sexual es un evento traumático, negativo e intenso, que coloca a la víctima en una situación de vulnerabilidad e indefensión, y algunas veces es re-victimizada por la familia, la comunidad, los medios de comunicación y el sistema de justicia. Las estadísticas indican que la mayoría de los delitos sexuales ocurren en el entorno familiar (81.3%); de estos los principales agresores son personas conocidas (39%); padres, madres, padrastros y otros familiares (23.33%) y novios (16.02%). Así mismo se reporta que el 83.06% de las víctimas de los delitos sexuales son niñas, niños y adolescentes de 0 a 17 años; y de estos el 87.01% son del sexo femenino. En el año 2017 la oficina de UNICEF Nicaragua da inicio a la implementación de una estrategia para el cambio social y de comportamiento denominada #La prevención del abuso sexual empieza por casa#, la cual trata de abordar el problema. Esta estrategia, contemplaba en sus primeros años de implementación, la priorización comportamientos que se buscaban transformar. A 2019 nos encontramos en etapa de iniciar una siguiente fase de intervención que se centre en analizar de una manera más integral esta problemática, con el fin de rediseñar el proyecto integrando un análisis de género más profundo, que contribuya a transformar las relaciones basadas en la violencia y no remarcar las desigualdades. Los comportamientos priorizados inicialmente se centraban en los siguientes elementos: # Los padres y madres protegen y cuidan siempre a los niños, niñas y adolescentes para prevenir la violencia sexual en el entorno familiar, escolar y comunitario. # Los padres y madres mantienen la confianza y la comunicación permanente con sus hijos e hijas, educándolos en valores y brindándoles información sobre los factores de riesgo de la violencia sexual. # Los padres y madres educan a sus hijos e hijas en establecer límites a la figura de autoridad de los adultos de la familia, la escuela y la comunidad. # Las niñas, niños y adolescentes identifican las situaciones de amenazas de abuso sexual y ponen en práctica las medidas de autocuidado para prevenirlo. Para el desarrollo de esta línea base, se deberá tener en cuenta los factores que condicionan los comportamientos actuales en las familias, las comunidades y la sociedad que impiden la prevención del abuso sexual. Por lo que se espera que esta línea base aporte elementos claves que permitan profundizar en el abordaje del abuso sexual contra niñas, niños y adolescentes. Participación de la comunidad para la mejora de la calidad educativa El Plan de Educación del Ministerio de Educación para el período 2017-2021 persigue tres grandes objetivos: 1) Mejorar calidad educativa y formación integral, para formar mejores seres humanos, con aprendizajes relevantes y con una cultura para emprender; 2) Incrementar la cobertura educativa, asegurando el derecho a la educación, con equidad; 3) Elevar el potencial humano de los servidores públicos en educación para el saber hacer. Uno de los factores asociados a la calidad de la educación que se persigue, es la participación de la comunidad educativa, con énfasis en el rol de la familia en los procesos de aprendizaje de los niños. Con el apoyo familiar, se espera que la matrícula escolar se incremente y que la permanencia y promoción escolares mejoren. También se espera que la participación y el apoyo familiar contribuyan a que los resultados de aprendizaje sean de mejor calidad.

El programa de cooperación UNICEF # Gobierno de Nicaragua, en el componente de educación identifica algunas problemáticas que deben ser trabajadas desde el cambio social con las madres, padres y cuidadores, entre ellas: falta de credibilidad en el sistema escolar; poco apoyo en las tareas escolares; poco acercamiento y participación en actividades de la escuela; y falta de reconocimiento de la labor de la escuela y los docentes. Es por ello que, utilizando el modelo de comunicación para el desarrollo, se definen actividades dirigidas a cambiar actitudes, percepciones y comportamientos de padres, madres y cuidadores, que impiden que los estudiantes lleguen, permanezcan y aprueben su año escolar con buenas notas.

Los comportamientos priorizados son los siguientes:

- # Comunidad educativa reconoce que la educación es importante para el futuro de los niños, y que es un derecho a garantizar
- # Comunidad educativa reconoce la importancia del prescolar en el desarrollo infantil y el papel que juega en la preparación para la escuela y el éxito escolar
- # Padres y madres (y otros cuidadores) se empeñan en asegurar que sus hijos vayan al prescolar: les motivan, les preparan su mochila y útiles escolares, los levantan temprano y se aseguran de su aseo personal, los acompañan hasta y desde la escuela, en su recorrido, aseguran constancia en la asistencia, se preocupan porque los niños atiendan los 3 niveles del prescolar, si es que hay oferta del servicio en su comunidad
- # Padres y madres (y otros cuidadores) acompañan y dedican más tiempo a sus hijos en las tareas escolares
- # Padres y madres (y otros cuidadores) visitan la escuela y se comunican con los docentes, participan en actividades escolares
- # Padres y madres facilitan desde el hogar la matrícula, asistencia y permanencia de los niños en la escuela
- # Padres invierten un poco más del presupuesto familiar en educación
- # Padres priorizan la educación por sobre cualquier otra tarea que los niños y los adolescentes pudiesen tener en el hogar
- # Comunidad educativa asume y promueve valores como el respeto, la tolerancia, el diálogo, la solidaridad
- # Comunidad educativa asume que la educación es un proceso que debe ser divertido, interesante para los niños
- # Comunidad educativa asume al niño como sujeto activo del proceso de aprendizaje
- # Padres y madres asumen como facilitadores del proceso de aprendizaje
- # Padres y madres están comprometidos con la mejora continua para lograr mejores resultados de aprendizaje

"Affiliates" means, with respect to the Supplier, any of its corporate affiliates or associates, including parent entities, subsidiaries, and other entities in which it owns a substantial interest.

"Confidential Information" means information or data that is designated as confidential at the time of exchange between the Parties or promptly identified as confidential in writing when furnished in intangible form or disclosed orally, and includes information, the confidential or proprietary nature of which is or should be reasonably apparent from the inherent nature, quality or characteristics of such information.

"INCOTERMS" means the international commercial terms known as the INCOTERMS rules, issued by the International Chamber of Commerce, most-recently issued at the effective date of the Contract. References in the Contract to trade terms (such as "FCA", "DAP" and "CIP") are references to those terms as defined by the INCOTERMS.

"Parties" means the Contractor and UNICEF together and a "Party" means each of the Contractor and UNICEF.

Supplier's "Personnel" means the Supplier's officials, employees, agents, individual sub-contractors and other representatives.

"Price" is defined in Article 3.1.

"Supplier" is the supplier named in the Contract.

"UNICEF Supply Website" means UNICEF's public access webpage available at http://www.unicef.org/supply/index_procurement_policies.html, as may be updated from time to time.

1.2 These General Terms and Conditions of Contract, UNICEF's Policy Prohibiting and Combatting Fraud and Corruption, the UNICEF's Policy on Conduct Promoting the Protection and Safeguarding of Children, the UN Supplier Code of Conduct, and UNICEF's Information Disclosure Policy referred to in the Contract, as well as other policies applicable to the Supplier, are publicly available on the UNICEF Supply Website. The Supplier represents that it has reviewed all such policies as of the effective date of the Contract.

2. Delivery; Inspection; Risk of Loss

2.1 The Supplier will deliver the Goods to the Consignee at the place and within the time period for delivery stated in the Contract. The Supplier will comply with the INCOTERM or similar trade term expressly stated in the Contract as applying to the Goods to be supplied under the Contract and all other delivery terms and instructions stated in the Contract. Notwithstanding any INCOTERM, the Supplier will obtain any export licences required for the Goods. The Supplier will ensure that UNICEF receives all necessary transport documents in a timely manner so as to enable UNICEF to take delivery of the Goods in accordance with the requirements of the Contract. The Supplier will neither seek nor accept instructions from any entity other than UNICEF (or entities authorized by UNICEF to give instructions to the Supplier) in connection with the supply and delivery of the Goods.

2.2 The Supplier will use its best efforts to accommodate reasonable requests for changes (if any) to the requirements for the Goods (such as packaging, packing and labeling requirements), shipping instructions or delivery date of the Goods set out in the Contract. If UNICEF requests any material change to the requirements for the Goods, shipping instructions or delivery date,

Price and the time schedule. Any such agreed changes will become effective only when they are set out in a written amendment to the Contract signed by both UNICEF and the Supplier. Should the Parties fail to agree on any such changes within thirty (30) days, UNICEF will have the option to terminate the Contract without penalty notwithstanding any other provision of the Contract.

2.3 The Supplier acknowledges that UNICEF may monitor the Supplier's performance under the Contract. The Supplier agrees to provide its full cooperation with such performance monitoring, at no additional cost or expense to UNICEF, and provide relevant information as reasonably requested by UNICEF, including, but not limited to, the date of receipt of the Contract, detailed delivery status, costs to be charged and payments made by UNICEF or pending.

Inspection

2.4 UNICEF or the Consignee (if different from UNICEF) will have a reasonable time to inspect the Goods after delivery. At UNICEF's request, the Supplier will provide its reasonable cooperation to UNICEF or the Consignee with regard to such inspection, including but not limited to access to production data, at no charge. The Supplier acknowledges that any inspection of the Goods by or on behalf of UNICEF or the Consignee does not constitute a determination that the specifications for the Goods set out in the Contract (including the mandatory technical requirements) have or have not been met. The Supplier will be required to comply with its warranty and other contractual obligations whether or not UNICEF or the Consignee carries out an inspection of the Goods.

Delivery not Acceptance; Consequences of Delayed Delivery and Non-conforming Goods

2.5 If the Supplier determines it will be unable to deliver all or some of the Goods to the Consignee by the delivery date(s) stipulated in the Contract, the Supplier will (a) immediately consult with UNICEF to determine the most expeditious means for delivering the Goods; and (b) use an expedited means of delivery, at the Supplier's cost (unless the delay is due to force majeure as defined in Article 6.7 below), if reasonably requested by UNICEF to do so. Partial deliveries of Goods will not be accepted unless prior written approval for such partial delivery has been given by UNICEF to the Supplier.

2.6 Delivery of the Goods will not constitute acceptance of the Goods. If some or all of the Goods do not conform to the requirements of the Contract or if the Supplier delivers the Goods late or fails to deliver the Goods (or any part of the Goods) in accordance with the agreed delivery dates and delivery terms and instructions, UNICEF may, without prejudice to any of its other rights and remedies, exercise one or more of the following rights under the Contract at UNICEF's option:

(a) UNICEF can reject and refuse to accept any or all of the Goods (including those that do conform to the Contract). If UNICEF rejects the Goods, the Supplier will, at its own cost, arrange for the prompt return of the rejected Goods and, at UNICEF's option, the Supplier will promptly replace the rejected Goods with Goods of equal or better quality (and will be responsible for all costs related to such replacement) or UNICEF may exercise its other rights set out below;

(b) UNICEF may procure all or part of the Goods from other sources, in which case the Supplier will be responsible for any additional costs beyond the balance of the Price for such Goods;

(c) Upon UNICEF's demand, the Supplier will refund all payments (if any) made by UNICEF in respect of the rejected Goods or the Goods that have not been delivered in accordance with the delivery dates and delivery terms;

(d) UNICEF can give written notice of breach and, if the Supplier fails to remedy the breach, can terminate the Contract in accordance with Article 6.1 below;

(e) UNICEF can require the Supplier to pay liquidated damages as set out in the Contract.

2.7 Further to Article 11.6 below, the Supplier expressly acknowledges that if, in respect of any consignment, UNICEF takes delivery of all or some of the Goods that have been delivered late or otherwise not in full compliance with the delivery terms and instructions or that are not in full conformity with the requirements of the Contract, this does not constitute a waiver of UNICEF's rights in respect of such late delivery or non-compliant Goods.

Risk of Loss; Title to Goods

2.8 Risk of loss, damage to or destruction of Goods supplied under the Contract, and

ANNEX A GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

INCOTERM or similar trade term expressly stated in the Contract as applying to the Goods supplied under the Contract and any other express terms of the Contract. In the absence of any such INCOTERM or similar trade term or other express terms, the following provisions will apply: (a) the entire risk of loss, damage to or destruction of the Goods will be borne exclusively by the Supplier until physical delivery of the Goods to the Consignee has been completed in accordance with the Contract; and (b) the Supplier will be solely liable for making all transport arrangements and for payment of freight and insurance costs for the shipment and delivery of the Goods in accordance with the requirements of the Contract.

2.9 Unless otherwise expressly provided in the Contract, title in and to the Goods will pass from the Supplier to the Consignee upon delivery of the Goods in accordance with the applicable delivery terms and acceptance of the Goods in accordance with the Contract.

3. Price; Invoicing; Tax Exemption; Payment Terms

3.1 The price for the Goods is the amount specified in the price section of the Contract (the "Price"), it being understood that such amount is specified in United States dollars unless otherwise expressly provided for in the price section of the Contract. The Price includes the cost of packaging and packing the Goods in accordance with the requirements of the Contract and delivery in accordance with the applicable delivery terms. The Price is inclusive of all costs, expenses, charges or fees that the Supplier may incur in connection with the performance of its obligations under the Contract; provided that, without prejudice to or limiting the provisions of Article 3.3 below, all duties and other taxes imposed by any authority or entity must be separately identified. It is understood and agreed that the Supplier will not request any change to the Price after delivery of the Goods by the Supplier and that the Price cannot be changed except by written agreement between the Parties before the Goods are delivered.

3.2 The Supplier will issue invoices to UNICEF only after the Supplier has fulfilled the delivery terms of the Contract. The Supplier will issue (a) one (1) invoice in respect of the payment being sought, in the currency specified in the Contract and in English, indicating the Contract identification number listed on the front page of the Contract; and (b) copies of the shipping documents and other supporting documents as specified in the Contract.

3.3 The Supplier authorizes UNICEF to deduct from the Supplier's invoices any amount representing direct taxes (except charges for utilities services) and customs restrictions, duties and charges of a similar nature in respect of articles imported or exported for UNICEF's official use, in accordance with the exemption from tax in Article II, Section 7 of the Convention of the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, 1946. In the event any governmental authority refuses to recognize this exemption from taxes, restrictions, duties or charges, the Supplier will immediately consult with UNICEF to determine a mutually acceptable procedure. The Supplier will provide full cooperation to UNICEF with regard to securing UNICEF's exemption from, or refund of amounts paid as, value-added taxes or taxes of a similar nature.

3.4 UNICEF will notify the Supplier of any dispute or discrepancy in the content or form of any invoice. With respect to disputes regarding only a portion of such invoice, UNICEF will pay the Supplier the amount of the undisputed portion in accordance with Article 3.5 below. UNICEF and the Supplier will consult in good faith to promptly resolve any dispute with respect to any invoice. Upon resolution of such dispute, any amounts that have not been charged in accordance with the Contract will be deducted from the invoice(s) in which they appear and UNICEF will pay any agreed remaining items in the invoice(s) in accordance with Article 3.5 within thirty (30) days after the final resolution of such dispute.

UNICEF will not be required to give the Supplier prior notice before exercising this right of set-off (such notice being waived by the Supplier). UNICEF will promptly notify the Supplier after it has exercised such right of set-off, explaining the reasons for such set-off, provided however that the failure to give such notification will not affect the validity of such set-off.

3.9 Each of the invoices paid by UNICEF may be subject to a post-payment audit by UNICEF's external and internal auditors or by other authorized agents of UNICEF, at any time during the term of the Contract and for three (3) years after the Contract terminates. (b) The Supplier will maintain the insurance coverage referred to in Article 4.8(a) above during the term of the Contract and for a period after the Contract terminates extending to the end of any applicable limitations period with regard to claims against which the insurance is obtained.

(c) The Supplier will be responsible to fund all amounts within any policy deductible or retention.

(d) Except with regard to the insurance referred to in paragraph (a)(iii) above, the insurance policies for the Supplier's insurance required under this Article 4.8 will (i) name UNICEF as an additional insured; (ii) include a waiver by the insurer of any subrogation rights against UNICEF; and (iii) provide that UNICEF will receive thirty (30) days' written notice from the insurer prior to any cancellation or change of coverage.

The term "Contract Materials" includes, but is not limited to, all maps, drawings, photographs, plans, reports, recommendations, estimates, documents developed or received by, and all other data compiled by or received by, the Supplier under the Contract. The Supplier acknowledges and agrees that Contract Materials constitute works made for hire for UNICEF. (b) UNICEF will not be entitled to, and will not claim any ownership interest in, any intellectual property or other proprietary rights of the Supplier that pre-existed the performance by the Supplier of its obligations under the Contract, or that the Supplier may develop or acquire, or may have developed or acquired, independently of the performance of its obligations under the Contract. The Supplier grants to UNICEF a perpetual license to use such intellectual property or other proprietary rights solely for the purposes of and in accordance with the requirements of the Contract.

(c) At UNICEF's request, the Supplier will take all necessary steps, execute all necessary documents and generally assist in securing such proprietary rights and transferring (or, in the case, intellectual property referred to in paragraph (b) above, licensing) them to UNICEF in compliance with the requirements of the applicable law and of the Contract.

Confidentiality

5.2 Confidential Information that is considered proprietary by either Party or that is delivered or disclosed by one Party ("Discloser") to the other Party ("Recipient") during the course of performance of the Contract will be held in confidence by the Recipient. The Recipient will use the same care and discretion to avoid disclosure of the Discloser's Confidential Information as the Recipient uses for its own Confidential Information and will use the Discloser's Confidential Information solely for the purpose for which it was disclosed to the Recipient. The Recipient will not disclose the Discloser's Confidential Information to any other party:

(a) except to those of its Affiliates, employees, officials, representatives, agents and sub-contractors who have a need to know such Confidential Information for purposes of performing obligations under the Contract; or

(b) unless the Confidential Information (i) is obtained by the Recipient from a third party without restriction; (ii) is disclosed by the Discloser to a third party without any obligation of confidentiality; (iii) is known by the Recipient prior to disclosure by the Discloser; or (iv) at any time is developed by the Recipient completely independently of any disclosures under the Contract.

5.3 If the Supplier receives a request for disclosure of UNICEF's Confidential Information pursuant to any judicial or law enforcement process, before any such disclosure is made the Supplier (a) will give UNICEF sufficient notice of such request in order to allow UNICEF to have a reasonable opportunity to secure the intervention of the relevant national Government to establish protective measures or take such other action as may be appropriate; and (b) will so advise the relevant authority that requested disclosure. UNICEF may disclose the Supplier's Confidential Information to the extent required pursuant to resolutions or regulations of its governing bodies.

5.4 The Supplier may not communicate at any time to any other person, Government or authority external to UNICEF, any information known to it by reason of its association with UNICEF that has not been made public, except with the prior authorization of UNICEF; nor will the Supplier at any time use such information to private advantage.

ANNEX A GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

If the breaching Party does not remedy the breach within the thirty (30) days' period or if the breach is not capable of remedy, the non-breaching Party can terminate the Contract. The termination will be effective thirty (30) days after the non-breaching Party gives the breaching Party written notice of termination. The initiation of conciliation or arbitral proceedings in accordance with Article 9 (Privileges and Immunities; Settlement of Disputes) below will not be grounds for termination of the Contract.

6.3 In addition to the termination rights under Articles 6.1 and 6.2 above, UNICEF can terminate the Contract at any time by providing written notice to the Supplier in any case in which UNICEF's mandate applicable to the performance of the Contract or UNICEF's funding applicable to the Contract is curtailed or terminated, whether in whole or in part. UNICEF can also terminate the Contract upon sixty (60) days' written notice to the Supplier without having to provide any justification.

In addition, the Supplier will take any other action that may be necessary, or that UNICEF may direct in writing, for the minimization of losses and for the protection and preservation of any property (whether tangible or intangible) related to the Contract that is in the possession of the Supplier and in which UNICEF has or may be reasonably expected to acquire an interest.

6.5 If the Contract is terminated, no payment will be due from UNICEF to the Supplier except for Goods delivered in accordance with the requirements of the Contract and only if such Goods were ordered, requested or otherwise provided prior to the Supplier's receipt of notice of termination from UNICEF or, in the case of termination by the Supplier, the effective date of such termination. The Supplier will have no claim for any further payment beyond payments in accordance with this Article 6.5, but will remain liable to UNICEF for all loss or damages which may be suffered by UNICEF by reason of the Supplier's default (including but not limited to cost of the purchase and delivery of replacement or substitute goods).
