(3) If the Court to which the application is made is satisfied—

(a) that, by reason of a change in the circumstances in the light of which any financial arrangements contained in the maintenance agreement were made (including a change foreseen by the parties when making the maintenance agreement), the maintenance agreement shall be altered so as to make different financial arrangements ; or

(b) that the agreement does not contain proper financial arrangements with respect to the child ; that Court may by order make such alterations in the maintenance agreement by varying or revoking any financial arrangements contained in it as may appear to it to be just having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(4) If the maintenance agreement is altered by an order under this paragraph, the maintenance agreement shall have effect thereafter as if the alteration had been made by agreement between the parties and for valuable consideration.

(5) Where a Court decides to make an order under this paragraph altering the maintenance agreement—

(a) by inserting provision for the making or securing by one of the parties to the maintenance agreement of periodical payments for the maintenance of the child; or

(b) by increasing the rate of periodical payments required to be made or secured by one of the parties for the maintenance of the child, the Court, in deciding the term for which under the agreement as altered by the order the payments or (as the case may be) the additional payments attributable to the increase are to be made or secured for the benefit of the child, shall apply the provisions of paragraphs 3 (1) and (2) of this Schedule as if the order were an order under paragraph 1 (2) (a) or (b) of this Schedule.

(6) The Court at the Magisterial level shall not entertain an application under sub_paragraph (2) of this paragraph unless both the parties to the maintenance agreement are resident in the State and shall not have power to make any order on such an application except—

(b) in a case where the maintenance agreement includes provisions for the making by one of the parties of periodical payments, an order increasing or reducing the rate of, or terminating, any of those payments.

(7) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that nothing in this paragraph affects any power of a Court before which any proceedings between the parties to a maintenance agreement are brought under any other enactment to make an order containing financial arrangements or the right of either party to apply for such an order in the proceedings.

11.—(1) Where a maintenance agreement provides for the continuation, after the death of one of the parties, of payments for the maintenance of a child, the surviving party or the personal representatives of the deceased party may apply to the Court for an order under paragraph 10 of this Schedule.

(2) If a maintenance agreement is altered by a Court on an application under this paragraph, the maintenance agreement shall have effect thereafter as if the alteration had been made, immediately before the death, by agreement between the parties and for valuable consideration.

(3) An application under this paragraph shall not, except with leave of the Court, be made after the end of the period of six months beginning with the day on which representation in regard to the estate of the deceased is first taken out.

(4) In considering, for the purposes of sub_paragraph (3) the question when representation was first taken out, a grant limited to settled land or to trust property shall be left out of account and a grant limited to real estate or to personal estate shall be left out of account unless a grant limited to the remainder of the estate has previously been made or is made at the same time.

(5) The provisions of this paragraph shall not render the personal representative of the deceased liable for having distributed any part of the estate of the deceased after the expiry of the period of six months referred to in sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph on the ground that he ought to have taken into account the possibility that a Court might grant leave for an application by virtue of this paragraph to be made by the surviving party after that period.

(6) Sub-paragraph (5) of this paragraph shall not prejudice any power to recover any part of the state so distributed arising by virtue of the making of an order in pursuance of this paragraph.

(b) arrangements for payment, whether as specified in the contribution notice or otherwise and the contributor notifies the State Government in writing that he so agrees, the State Government may recover summarily as a civil debt any contribution which is overdue and unpaid.

(8) A contributor may, by serving a notice in writing on the State Government, withdraw his agreement in relation to any period of liability falling after the date of service of the notice.

(b) shall be made with due regard to the contributor’s means.

(4) A contributions order shall not—

(a) take effect before the date specified in the contribution notice ; or

(b) have effect while the contributor is not liable to contribute by virtue of paragraph 21 of this Schedule ; or

(c) remain in force after the child has ceased to be looked after by the State Government which obtained the order.

(5) A State Government may not apply to the Court under Sub-paragraph (1) of this Schedule in relation to a contribution notice which it has withdrawn.

(6) Where—

(a) a contribution order is in force ;

(b) the State Government serves another contribution notice ; and

(c) the contributor and the State Government reach an agreement under paragraph 22 (7) of this Schedule in respect of that other contribution notice, the effect of the agreement shall be to discharge the order from the date on which it is agreed that the agreement shall take effect.

(7) Where an agreement is reached under Sub-paragraph (6) of this paragraph the State Government shall notify the Court—

(a) of the agreement ; and

(b) of the date on which it took effect.

(8) A contribution order may be varied or revoked on the application of the contributor or the State Government.

(11) An appeal shall lie in accordance with Rules of Court from any order made under this paragraph.

Enforcement of contribution orders, etc.

24.—(1) A contribution order made by the Court at the Magisterial level shall be enforceable as a magistrates' court maintenance order.

(2) Where a contributor has agreed, or has been ordered, to make contributions to a State Government, any other State Government within whose State the contributor is for the time being living may—

(a) at the request of the State Government who served the contribution notice; and

(b) subject to agreement as to any sum to be deducted in respect of services rendered, collect from the contributor any contributions due on behalf of the State Government who served the notice.

(3) The power to collect sums under Subparagraph (2) of this paragraph includes the power to—

(a) receive and give a discharge for any contributions due ; and

(b) if necessary enforce payment of any contribution, notwithstanding that those contributions may have fallen due at a time when the contributor was living elsewhere.

(4) Any contribution collected under Sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph shall be paid (subject to any agreed deduction) to the State Government who served the contribution notice.

MANAGEMENT AND CONDUCT OF COMMUNITY HOMES

Instruments of management for Controlled and Assisted Community Homes

1.—(1) The Minister may by order make an instrument of management providing for the constitution of a body of managers for any voluntary home which is designated as a controlled or an assisted community home.

(2) Sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph applies where two or more voluntary homes are designated as controlled community homes or as assisted community homes.

(3) If :

(a) those homes are, or are to be, provided by the same voluntary organisation ; and

(b) the same State Government is to be represented on the body of managers for those homes, a single instrument of management may be made by the Minister under this paragraph constituting one body of managers for the homes or for any two or more of them.

(4) The number of persons who, in accordance with an instrument of management, constitute the body of managers for a voluntary home shall be such number (which must be a multiply of three) as may be specified in the instrument.

(5) The instrument shall provide that the State Government specified in the instrument shall appoint :

(a) in the case of a voluntary home which is designated as a controlled community home, two-thirds of the managers ; and

(b) in the case of a voluntary home which is designated as an assisted community home, one-third of the managers.

(6) An instrument of management shall provide that the foundation managers shall be appointed, in such manner and by such persons as may be specified in the instrument :

(a) so as to represent the interests of the voluntary organisation by which the home is, or is to be, provided; and

(b) for the purpose of securing that :

(i) so far as is practicable, the character of the home as a voluntary home will be preserved, and

(ii) subject to paragraph 2 (3) of this Schedule, the terms of any trust deed relating to the home are observed.

(7) An instrument of management shall come into force on such date as it may specify.

(8) If any instrument of management is in force in relation to a voluntary home, the home shall be (and be known as) a controlled community home or as an assisted community home, according to its designation.

(9) In this paragraph :

“designated”, means designated in accordance with Section 190 of this Act ; and “foundation managers”, in relation to a voluntary home, means those of the managers of the home who are not appointed by a State Government in accordance with Sub-paragraph (5) of this paragraph.

2.—(1) An instrument of management shall contain such provisions as the Minister considers appropriate.

(2) Nothing in the instrument of management shall affect the purposes for which the premises comprising the home are held.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of Sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, an instrument of management may contain provisions :

(a) specifying the nature and purpose of the home (or each of the homes) to which it relates ;

(b) requiring a specified number or proportion of the places in that home (or those homes) to be made available to State Governments and to any other body specified in the instrument ; and

(c) relating to the management of that home (or those homes) and the charging of fees with respect to :

(i) children placed there, or

(ii) places made available to any State Government or other body.

(4) Subject to Sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph where there is any inconsistency between the provisions of any trust deed and an instrument of management, the instrument of management shall prevail over the provisions of the trust deed in so far as they relate to the home concerned.

(5) After consultation with the voluntary organisation concerned and with the State Government specified in its instrument of management, the Minister may by order vary or revoke any provision of the instrument.

PART II—MANAGEMENT OF CONTROLLED AND ASSISTED COMMUNITY HOMES

3.—(1) The management, equipment and maintenance of a controlled community home shall be the responsibility of the State Government specified in its instrument of management.

(3) The functions of a home’s responsible body shall be exercised through the managers.

(4) Anything done, liability incurred or property acquired by a home’s managers shall be done, incurred or acquired by them as agents of the responsible body.

(5) In so far as any matter is reserved for the decision of a home’s responsible body by :

(a) subparagraph (7) of this paragraph ; or

(b) the instrument of management ; or

(c) the service by the body on the managers, or any of them, of a notice reserving any matter, that matter shall be dealt with by the body and not by the managers.

(6) In dealing with any matter so reserved, the responsible body shall have regard to any representation made to the body by the managers.

(7) The employment of persons at a home shall be a matter reserved for the decision of the responsible body.

(8) Where the instrument of management of a controlled community home so provides, the responsible body may enter into arrangement with the voluntary organisation by which that home is provided whereby, in accordance with such terms as may be agreed between them and the voluntary organisation, persons who are not in the employment of the responsible body shall undertake duties at that home.

(9) Subject to Sub-paragraph (10) of this paragraph :

(a) where the responsible body for an assisted community home proposes to engage any person to work in that home or to terminate without notice the employment of any person at that home, it shall consult the State Government specified in the instrument of management and, if that State Government so directs, the responsible body shall not carry out its proposal without their consent ; and

(b) that State Government may, after consultation with the responsible body, require that body to terminate the employment of any person at that home.

(10) Sub-paragraph (9) (a) and (b) of this paragraph shall not apply—

(a) in such cases or circumstances as may be specified by notice in writing given by the State Government to the responsible body ; and

(b) in relation to the employment of any persons or class of persons specified in the home's instrument of management.

(11) The accounting year of the managers of a home shall be such as may be specified by the responsible body.

(12) Before such date in each accounting year as may be so specified, the managers of a home shall submit to the responsible body estimates, in such form as the body may require, of expenditure and receipts in respect of the next accounting year.

(13) Any expenses incurred by the managers of a home with the approval of the responsible body shall be defrayed by that body.

(14) The managers of a home shall keep—

(a) proper accounts with respect to the home ; and

(b) proper records in relation to the accounts.

(15) Where an instrument of management relates to more than one home, one set of accounts and records may be kept in respect of all the homes to which it relates.

(16) In this paragraph—

“home” means a controlled community home or an assisted community home, as the case may be ; and

“managers”, in relation to a home, means the managers constituted by its instrument of management ; and “responsible body”, in relation to a home, means the State Government or voluntary organisation, as the case may be, responsible for its management, equipment and maintenance.

- (g) provide for consultation with the Minister as to applicants for appointment to take charge of a home ;
- (h) empower the Minister to prohibit the appointment of any particular applicant, except in the case (if any) in which the regulations dispense with such consultation by reason that the person to be appointed possesses such qualifications as may be prescribed ;
- (i) require the approval of the Minister for the provision and use of accommodation for the purpose of restricting the liberty of children in such homes and impose other requirements in addition to those imposed by Section 185 of this Act, as to the placing of a child in accommodation provided for that purpose, including a requirement to obtain the permission of any State Government who is looking after the child ;
- (j) provide that, to such extent as may be provided for in the regulations, the Minister may direct that any provision or regulations under this paragraph which is specified in the direction and makes any such provision as is referred to in Sub_paragraph (2) (a) or (b) of this paragraph shall not apply in relation to a particular home or the premises used for it, and may provide for the variation or revocation of any such direction by the Minister.
