UNICEF Cards & Gifts

For every child
Health, Education, Equality, Protection
ADVANCE HUMANITY
The best moments of my years as UNICEF ambassador were when I was with children face-to-face. I have visited numerous UNICEF-assisted project sites and have met children in various situations, from ordinary public school children, to children who had lost homes and loved ones due to natural disasters, children who were in trouble with the law, children who have survived the horrors of abuse, even children who lived in such remote areas that I thought for sure they must have never heard of me.

One thing these children had in common, no matter how dire or serious their situation was, was hope. They had hope because they were surrounded by adults who cared enough to make it their business to look after children in need. I admire those men and women. Some of them could make much more money if they were not in a government agency or an NGO. But they chose a line of work that pays a different kind of income. Certainly, people who give up worldly rewards to give children hope must be earning rewards in heaven.

You, too, can give children in the Philippines hope. And you do not need to change your career. By purchasing UNICEF cards and gifts, you not only get high-quality gifts for loved ones. You also support those men and women who are committed to safeguarding children.

Be a part of the Child-friendly Movement that is changing the lives of children all over the Philippines. Support UNICEF!

Supporting Education for All

Education is crucial to every child's development. UNICEF acts to ensure that all children enrol and stay in school to equip them with the basic tools they need to succeed in later life.

Early Childhood Care and Development

UNICEF promotes an integrated early childhood care and development (ECCD). Early childhood is a crucial stage when a child's health care and meaningful experiences influence learning and behaviour throughout life. We assist in improving the quality of ECCD services for preschool children, through the development of ECCD curriculum standards and tools, training day care workers & pre-school teachers, parents and NGO partners on holistic approaches to early child care and development and provision of ECCD learning materials. We support the expansion of day care centres & pre-schools and help provide alternative forms of ECCD services, especially for children in disadvantaged areas.

Child-friendly Learning System

UNICEF helps transform schools into child-friendly learning systems. We help schools use effective teaching strategies, be health-promoting, and adopt gender-fair and inclusive practices. We provide basic supplies and learning packages for children, especially in the disadvantaged communities. We support the training of teachers, school heads and supervisors on child-friendly approaches and practices. Teachers are also trained to look out for signs of abuse or trouble at home. We help expand the network of elementary and high school child-friendly schools.

Dear friends,

Soon, my family and I will be spending our fifth Christmas in the Philippines. In that time I have seen how truly special Christmas time is in this country. It is a time of celebration, with a never-ending chain of parties overflowing with food. It is a time of reuniting with friends and family. Most of all, it is a time of giving – of gifts, of one’s time, of one’s efforts, of one’s talents.

UNICEF, for one, has been witness to the generosity of the Filipino people. Since 1994, UNICEF has sold 5.5 million cards in the Philippines. These sales have raised ₱60 million for children’s programmes in the country, ₱4.2 million in 2006 alone. With your help, the country now has 4,000 child-friendly schools and over 7,000 barangays now have day care centres and other early childhood services.

However, the needs are great: 25 per cent of underfive children are underweight; for every 10 children who enter grade 1, 4 will drop out before finishing grade 6, most of them boys; 11 women die every day during childbirth; about 40,000 children are displaced from their homes every year because of armed conflict; and, about twice that number are involved in child trafficking. These are only some of the challenges that UNICEF continues to address.

I am confident that your generosity can exceed the needs.

Buy a UNICEF product and enjoy a gift twice-over: a gift for your loved one and a gift of hope for Filipino children.

UNICEF items are gifts that keep on giving.

Maligayang Pasko at Manigong Bagong Taon!

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Nicholas Alipui
Country Representative
