MORE CHILDREN ARE IN SCHOOL
MORE CHILDREN HAVE ACCESS to WASH
FEWER CHILDREN LIVE IN POVERTY
There has never been a greater need for the world to pay attention. Despite tremendous progress over the past decades, according to the latest data:

- 385 million children live in extreme poverty.
- 246 million children are out of school.
- 50 million children are fleeing violence, war, poverty, and climate change.
- 5.6 million children under the age of five died last year from preventable causes.
1. UNICEF was established after World War II to help children

2. UNICEF works in 190 countries for the most vulnerable and hardest to reach children

3. Last year alone, UNICEF responded to 344 emergencies – conflicts and natural disasters – in 108 countries

4. UNICEF has reached almost half of the world’s children in 100 countries with vaccines

5. UNICEF can ship lifesaving supplies almost anywhere in the world within 48 hours
UNICEF works in some of the world’s toughest places, to reach the world’s most disadvantaged children. To save their lives. To defend their rights. To help them fulfil their potential.

Across 190 countries and territories, we work for every child, everywhere, every day, to build a better world for everyone.

And we never give up.
