“有人曾说，联合国是被官僚们管理着的梦想。我要对此说法加以更正。联合国已成为一个被梦想者管理着的官僚机制。毫无疑问，为联合国工作时你必须成为一个有着坚定信仰的梦想者。因为唯有拥有这种使命感，你才能够承受住来自成员国政府的不断打击。这些政府担心联合国会变成一个世界政府。

为联合国工作的人最终必须成为思想的魔术师。因为，为联合国工作就像为政府工作，而在这个政府里所有政党同时都在掌权。”

"Someone once said that the United Nations is a dream managed by bureaucrats. I would correct that by saying that it has become a bureaucracy managed by dreamers. Certainly you have to be a dreamer to work in the United Nations with conviction. It is only if you have this sense of mission that you can withstand the constant battering by governments who are afraid that the United Nations will become a world government...

So in the end, someone who works in the United Nations has to be a magician of ideas, because working for the United Nations is like working for a government in which all the political parties are in power at the same time."
