

How Society Defines Disability?

However, people with disabilities are people with various levels of loss in their physical, mental, psychological and emotional abilities. It is the interaction between health conditions, personal circumstances and the environment that cause disability.

Defining Children without Disabilities and Children with Disabilities

Society defined "children without disabilities" as social and brave whereas they defined "children with disabilities" as unhappy and insecure.

How Society Sees Children With Disabilities

“We have asked approximately 2400 people.

I would accept my children and a children with disabilities to.....”

What are the risks and dangers that are children with disabilities are more vulnerable to compared to children without disabilities?

Child exploitation/child workers

Insult and beat by the parents

Insult and beat by caregivers

Sexual Abuse

Abandonment and isolation

What Kind Of Actions Should Be Taken?

“We have asked approximately 2400 people.”

How Much Information Does The Society Have About Children With Disabilities?

“We have asked approximately 2400 people.”

In what extend you have information about children with disabilities?

“We have asked approximately 2400 people.”

The Actions That Needs To Be Taken For Children With Disabilities?

Physical arrangements should be obligatory
and determined
by the government

Education should start in early ages

Informative campaigns needs to done
at the most visible places

Institutions
needs to work in collaboration

What Does Society Feels When They See A Child With Disabilities?

How Children With Disabilities Excluded In The Society?

36.7% of the society thinks that children with disabilities are excluded from participation to the social life.

ALL CHILDREN have THE SAME RIGHTS and same needs.

