

African youth to African leaders:

“You must do more to end conflicts in Africa”

Say 2/3 of African youth in the pan-African U-report poll on conflicts.

Report
VOICE MATTERS

unicef

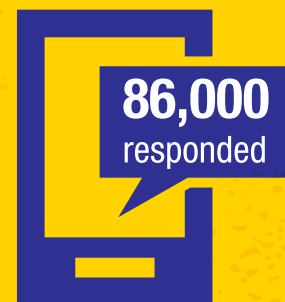

What: The first ever pan-African U-Report survey

Where: Nigeria, Burkina Faso, Mali, Central African Republic, Senegal, Liberia, Zimbabwe, Cameroon and Guinea

Who:

1,4 million

youth in 9 countries received the survey

How: The U-Reporters were asked to answer the survey on conflict and crisis in Africa, on their mobile phones

When:

from 18 May to 1 June 2016

Age of responders:

the majority are between 15 and 30 years

1. Are African leaders doing enough to stop conflicts and crisis in Africa?

