

BMZ, WFP, UNICEF & GIZ Sahel Resilience Partnership

WFP, UNICEF and GIZ's multi-sectoral approach creates opportunities for individuals, communities and systems to cope with crises, to prepare themselves for recurring shocks and stressors to mitigate the negative effects and gradually overcome them permanently through structural changes.

● WFP ● UNICEF ● GIZ

JOINT OUTCOMES

-  Food and nutrition security
-  Climate-resilient eco systems
-  Resilient social services
-  Conflict resolution and social cohesion

 Community volunteers

Early warning tools contribute to the prevention of disasters and preparedness for hazards and threats

The two-way arrows symbolize communications between micro and meso levels, whereby municipalities and services receive feedback or complaints from communities and report back to communities

